World Saddened By Death Of Pope

By GERALD MILLER
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Countless millions around the world mourned Pope John XXIII today as the cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church began preparations to pick his successor.
The 81-year-old spiritual ruler of half a billion Catholics died Monday night after four days of agonizing suffering from stomach tumor and peritonitis.
The Pope's body lay in state in an antechamber of the papal Vatican apartment as cardinals and diplomats accredited to the Vatican called to pay homage.
The body was dressed in red pontifical robes, with a golden bishop's miter on the head and red slippers on the feet. Two of the Vatican noble guards stood at the head of the catafalque.
The cardinals and diplomats kneled at the foot of the catafalque to pray and kiss the Pope's slipper. The prelates sprinkled holy water on the body as they knelt.

The Pope's body was to be carried later across St. Peter's Square and into St. Peter's Basilica, the largest church in Christendom. It will lie in state there until Thursday night.
The public will be admitted to St. Peter's Wednesday and Thursday to pay homage. Thursday evening the body will be placed in a crypt in the basilica in a private burial ceremony.
The Vatican made no announcement of the date for the state funeral. It probably will be toward the end of the nine-day period of official mourning.
As they mourned, the cardinals began daily meetings to deal with the routine affairs of the church and to plan the conclave that will meet between June 18 and June 21 to elect Pope John's successor.

The first meeting was attended only by cardinals who were in Rome when the Pope died. Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, French-born dean of the College of Cardinals, sent formal notice of the Pope's death to the other 81 members of the sacred college and summoned them to Rome.
Major decisions left over from the reign of Pope John await the new Pope.
He must decide whether to continue the Ecumenical Council which Pope John convened last fall and which was suspended automatically at his death. The council's aim was greater Christian unity, and it is considered almost certain that the new Pope will summon the church's 2,400

Ministers Express Sympathy In Death

The East Liverpool Ministerial Association today expressed its "deepest sympathy" to the Catholic Church in the death of Pope John XXIII.
The Rev. Albert Rodenhause, new association president and pastor of the First Baptist Church, said the pontiff's death is "the loss of a great leader who has done much to create a better feeling between all Christian elements".

bishops back to Rome to resume its work.

The new Pope also must decide whether to move along the path of better relations with Communist governments which Pope John had opened in hopes of easing the plight of Catholics behind the Iron Curtain.

The cardinals will vote twice daily in the Sistine Chapel until two thirds of the princes of the church agree on a choice. Although neither a lesser prelate nor a non-Italian is barred, the new Pope probably will be an Italian and a cardinal.

The favorite among the "papabile"—those considered likely papal candidates—is Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini, 65, archbishop of Milan and the first cardinal created by Pope John.

Although he was not a cardinal at the time, he was mentioned often as a papal prospect before the 1958 conclave that chose Pope John to succeed Pope Pius XII.

Three men will be missing from the election conclave. They are the three cardinals Pope John named three years ago "in pectore," literally in his breast, or in secret.

The Pope died without revealing their names. There was some speculation that he left their names in a document to be opened by his successor.

Catholic and non-Catholic alike mourned Pope John's passing.

Masses with special prayers for the dead were ordered for all Roman Catholic churches by the Vatican's Congregation of Rites.

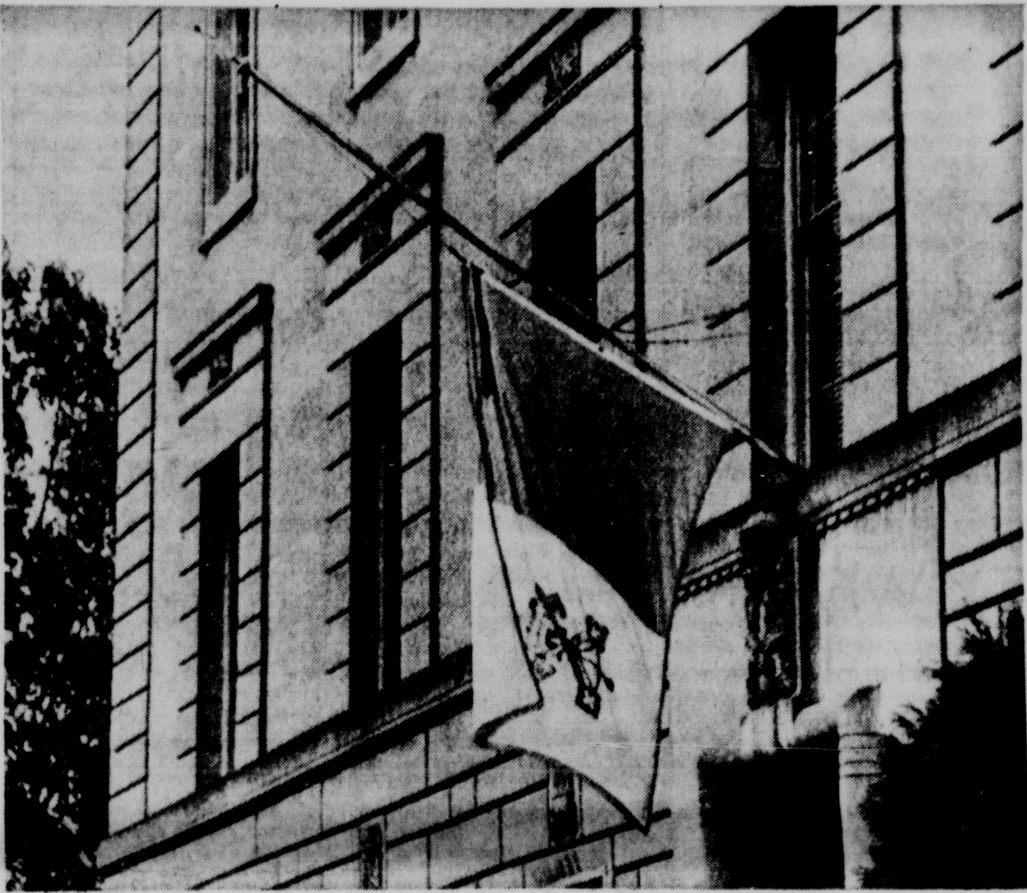

From around the world—including Communist countries—came a chorus of sorrow for the Pope who made the theme of his reign a call for all men to live in harmony together.

His death brought profound sadness everywhere, but also relief that his awful suffering was over. He died as he had predicted—after sunset.

"My time will come at night," he once said. "By day I have church business."

Death came at 7:49 p.m.—2.49 p.m. EST—nine minutes after an extraordinary Mass in St. Peter's Square below the Pope's bed-chamber had ended.

The great bell in the dome of St. Peter's suddenly began to toll. The great bronze doors at the entrance to the Vatican began swinging shut in the traditional sign that a Pope's life had ended. The 100,000 grieving faithful massed in the square took up the cry "He's dead! He's dead!"

THE PAPAL flag, draped in black, flies at half-staff from the Apostolic Delegation in Washington Monday following the death of Pope John XXIII. Pay Tribute To Pontiff

Kennedy, All Americans Grieve Over Pope's Death

By The Associated Press
President Kennedy, joining his fellow Americans in expressing sorrow at the death of Pope John XXIII, said the pontiff's concern for human spirit "transcended all boundaries of belief or geography."
Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, said the Pope's "wisdom, compassion and timely strength bequeathed humanity a new legacy of purpose and courage for the future."
Tributes to the Pope were expressed by clergymen and laymen of Catholic, Protestant, Jewish and other religions.
The five American members of the Roman Catholic Church's College of Cardinals said the world will miss the Pope whose great contribution was unity and understanding among the various faiths.
Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson called the Pope's death a "profound loss," adding: "We shall always remember his great pastoral qualities and his leadership in the ecumenical movement."

U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations, praised Pope John's recent encyclical on peace, "Pacem in Terris." He said it "spoke for all men and to all men in restating his belief in the dignity of the individual, in fundamental human rights, in justice and in an effective international order."
The highest ranking officer of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, called the Pope's death "a loss, not only to the Roman Catholic Church, but to a fragmented and anxious world seeking meaning and unity in the midst of chaos."
Dr. K. Owen White, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, said, "I believe Pope John was an unusually aggressive leader for his people and was genuinely and vitally interested in world peace. His call for an Ecumenical Council indicates his breadth of vision and sense of world need."

Bishop Fred P. Corson, president of the World Methodist Council, representing nearly 50 million Methodists, said, "All Christendom mourns the death of a great and good man."
A. M. Sonnabend, president of the American Jewish Committee, said Pope John's "extraordinary personal leadership has significantly transformed and improved human relationships in such a historic way that this may well constitute his greatest living monument."
J. Irwin Miller, president of the National Council of Churches, said Pope John "left his heritage, a reawakened spirit of unity and love that will be felt forever by men of all faiths."

Council Sets Deadline

Petitions On Street Work Must Be Filed By June 30

Council approved a motion Monday night requiring that property-owners' petitions for the current year's low-cost street improvement program must be filed at City Hall not later than June 30.
The deadline was proposed in a motion by Councilman Edward Massey, which Council approved unanimously. About $6,100 will be available for the program this summer — less than a third of the amount the city contributed in 1962 in a 50-50 split of costs with property-owners.
Earlier, Council had appropriated $7,000 for the city's share of the program, but it approved a motion last night — also from Massey — to allocate $900 of the total to allow completion of the summer street — oiling program to lay dust.

Queried by Council, Safety Service Director Robert Owen said Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper reported a legal advertisement for contractors' bids on the low-cost street work is scheduled for first publication Thursday. He said he believes bids will be opened June 21.
The city spent about $21,000 on the street improvement work in 1962, surfacing approximately five miles of secondary thoroughfares. Property — owners formed neighborhood groups in petitioning for the improvements. The contract last year was held by the Ohio Tar & Asphalt Co. of Canton.
Discussion of the street program opened last night when Owen suggested that Council nullify a former appropriation of $5,000 for

Pope's Death Due To Affect East-West Tie

WASHINGTON (AP)—The death of Pope John XXIII seems destined to have a profound impact on the future development of relations between the Soviet Union and the Western powers.
The pontiff in recent months had been engaged in a delicate and subtle effort to open up a speaking acquaintance between the Kremlin and the Vatican.
Whether and how this effort will be continued must now depend on his successor. As Washington authorities understood the operation, the effort was largely due to Pope John's deep personal interest in doing what he could to save the world from war in the nuclear age and his immediate aim of improving the conditions of the Roman Catholic church in Eastern Europe.

Injunction Sought In School Case

Negro Attorneys File Notice Of Bid In Alabama Strife

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Negro attorneys are taking to a federal appeals court their request for an immediate injunction to strike down the segregated school system in racially troubled Birmingham.
Attorney W. L. Williams Jr. said the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans would be asked for a preliminary injunction pending an appeal of a lower court ruling. Notice of appeal was filed Monday.
U.S. Dist. Judge Seybourn H. Lynne refused last Tuesday to order school desegregation but warned he would order submission of an integration plan unless school officials administer a state pupil placement law without discrimination this fall.
Lynne held that the complainants in a 1960 suit had not exhausted their remedies under the placement law, which has been held at face value by the U. S. Supreme Court.

In another court battle, Lynne heard Justice Department attorneys press Monday for an injunction barring Gov. George C. Wallace from interfering with scheduled enrollment of Negroes at the University of Alabama next week.
Lynne said he hoped to hand down a decision by Wednesday.
The university trustees announced acceptance of a third Negro student for the summer session opening Monday. The trustees said James A. Hood, 20, of East Gadsden, Ala., probably would enroll at the same time Vivian J. Malone, also 20, of Mobile, arrives at the main campus in Tuscaloosa.
The other Negro student is David M. McGlathery, 27, of Huntsville. He plans to enroll at the Huntsville branch of the university.
Wallace has pledged repeatedly that he will stand in the university doors to block the way of any Negro student.

Heavy Vote Expected In Election At Weirton

WEIRTON — A heavy turnout at the polls was expected in today's nonpartisan general election in which a mayor and seven councilmen will be chosen for four-year terms starting July 1.
Chief interest is centered in the mayoralty battle in which incumbent Mayor David Frew and challenger Frank Rybka are seeking a second term. Rybka is a former justice of the peace.

Season Pool Pass Restored

Hancock Parents Win Tomlinson Price Cut

Heeding the protests of parents from the Chester — New Cumberland — Pughtown areas, the assistant director of West Virginia state parks agreed Monday to lower the admission rates at the outdoor swimming pool of Tomlinson Run State Park for the new season.
Kermit McKeever of Charleston, contacted by phone by Hancock County Commissioners, agreed to allow the sale of season passes to the swimming pool at Tomlinson Run this summer.
SALE OF monthly passes for the 1963 season had been eliminated in favor of a daily admission charge, touching off a storm of protests by parents from the North Hancock areas.
A dozen parents appeared before county commissioners Monday at the Courthouse in New Cumberland and presented petitions listing over 200 names of those objecting to what they termed an "unfair" change in admission rates.

The new plan called for a daily admission charge of 50 cents for adults and 30 cents for children under 12.
Previously, monthly season passes were sold, costing $5 for adults and $3.50 for youngsters under 12 years.
PARENTS claimed that elimination of the passes in favor of the daily admission charge would "triple" the cost of swimming during the summer months for some families.
McKeever, in conversation with Commissioner William C. Graham of Chester, agreed to allow the sale of season passes at the Pughtown area recreational site.
The cost will be $12.50 for adults and $7.50 for those under 12 years. But the season passes will not gain admittance on Sundays and holidays, the state parks official ruled. On these days, the daily admission charge of 50 cents and 30 cents will prevail.

THE "SEASON" passes will be good for swimming during June, July and August.
McKeever did not heed protests by the parents against abolishment of last year's plan admitting children under 5 free of charge.
With Mrs. Irene Grace of Park Meadows near Pughtown acting as spokesman, the 12-member delegation also aired other complaints concerning regulations at Tomlinson Run.
They complained of rules forbidding use of beach bags in the pool area, and of use of playing cards or smoking in the enclosed site of the pool. It was also pointed out by the group that youngsters in the Children's Home nearby "should be allowed to visit the pool more than two days a

Council Asks Federal Fund In Sewer Job

$40,000 Requested To Help Construct Gardendale's Line

Council enacted legislation Monday night asking a $40,000 federal grant to aid on construction of an $80,000 trunk line sewer project in Gardendale.
The aid will be sought under a law enacted by Congress Sept. 14, 1962, authorizing federal grants to bolster specific local public works projects, the resolution provides.
Plans have been under way for several years for the Gardendale project, which calls for construction of a trunk line to link the residential area with the Carpenters Run sewer line in California Hollow.
In recent weeks, Council reported plans for the project virtually were complete and a conference was held with residents of the Gardendale area to explain the details.
When the project first was proposed, Council indicated the work would be financed out of the construction fund of the sewerage treatment department, which would eliminate any outlay on the part of the property-owners. If the federal grant is obtained, the drain on the sewer revenue fund will be cut in half.
However, the construction of the

Justice Frees Waitress In Sale To Minor

A waitress at a Chester area tavern was found innocent of a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor at a hearing Monday night before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.
Beatrice Hughes of Hookstown R. D. 1, a waitress at Phil's Place on Route 30, was found not guilty of the charge filed by Hancock County sheriff's deputies because of lack of evidence. She had pleaded innocent.
Squire Herron explained that a 17-year-old Beaver County teen-ager, one 17 and the others 18, failed to appear at the hearing to testify.
The licensee of the tavern and another waitress were fined last week in connection with sale of beer to the 17-year-old industry boy. They were arrested Wednesday at 11:02 p. m.
Deputies returned to the establishment later and charged the Hookstown area woman with contributing, alleging she was involved in sale of beer to the 17-year-old boy. She had posted $106 bond for Monday's hearing.
Constables J. Carl Durham of Newell and Harold Davis of Chester accompanied deputies in the check of the tavern. Davis was present at last night's hearing.
Herron fined Emory Choma, 42, of Lisbon R. D. 2 $50 and costs on a charge of operating a boat while intoxicated, while Aline Choma, 43, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of being intoxicated

County Youth And 3 Others Die In Crash

Truck Veers Into Paths Of Cars On Hill Near Ravenna

RAVENNA — Death struck swiftly late Monday at the bottom of a small hill on Ohio 14.
It started when a big truck jackknifed and spun out of control into the path of cars bound from the opposite direction.
When it was over, four persons, including a Leetonia youth, were dead and a woman was injured in a fiery collision of four vehicles. The dead were:
Otice Locke, 46, of Fort Worth, Tex., the truck driver.
Russell M. Lehman, 18, of Leetonia, the driver of one car.
James M. Marshall of Sebring, a passenger in Lehman's car.
Edward Pilkenton, 33, of New Milford, driver of another car.
Injured was Patricia Hrovatic, 19, of Atwater. She was listed in "fair" condition in a hospital with a broken leg and pelvis. She was driving alone.
The bodies of Mr. Lehman and Mr. Marshall were severely burned by a fire which set their car aflame. Another car also went up in flames.
The Ohio Highway Patrol gave these details of the crash, near Campbellsport, four miles south-east of Ravenna:

Coast Guard Reports No Bodies Seen

Craft Flying U.S. Military Personnel, Families, Citizens

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — The Coast Guard reported today that debris sighted off Graham Island, B.C., in the Gulf of Alaska definitely was from a missing plane with 101 persons aboard. The Coast Guard said no survivors nor bodies had been sighted.
A Coast Guard cutter on the scene, about 60 miles west of the island, said life jackets, luggage and clothing had been positively identified as being from a charter Northwest Airlines DC7 missing since Monday on a flight from McChord Air Force Base, Wash., to Elmendorf AFB, Alaska.
The cutter reported it saw no signs of any survivors or bodies, and the Coast Guard said earlier a person could not live for more than 10 or 15 minutes in the 40-degree waters. An Albatross aircraft and the Japanese freighter Hoseni Maru were also on the scene.
A Canadian Air Force pilot reported sighting uninflated life rafts, torn pillows and suitcases bobbing in the water Monday night, but because of darkness the search could not be continued until dawn today. The pilot said he thought the debris might have come from the ill-fated plane.
The four-engine craft, making a daily routine flight to the big base just outside Anchorage, was carrying military personnel, dependents and civilian employees of the government.
It had a veteran pilot, Capt. Albert Olson, of Sumner, Wash.
The plane left McChord, near Tacoma, on schedule at 8:30 a.m. It was last heard from two hours and 36 minutes later when Olson radioed the air station at Sandspit, B.C., for a change of altitude from 14,000 to 18,000 feet.

Squirrel That Bit Boy Found Free Of Rabies

A squirrel which nipped a 12-year-old caddy at the Country Club on Memorial Day did not have rabies, Dog Warden Robert Croyle was advised today.
Croyle said he was notified by the State Health Department laboratories in Columbus that tests showed the animal was not rabid.
The squirrel was killed by a golfer after it nipped the caddy's finger. Fearing the animal might be diseased, the head was turned over to Croyle, who forwarded it to Columbus for the test.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The death of Pope John XXIII seems destined to have a profound impact on the future development of relations between the Soviet Union and the Western powers.

The pontiff in recent months had been engaged in a delicate and subtle effort to open up a speaking acquaintance between the Kremlin and the Vatican.

Whether and how this effort will be continued must now depend on his successor. As Washington authorities understood the operation, the effort was largely due to Pope John's deep personal interest in doing what he could to save the world from war in the nuclear age and his immediate aim of improving the conditions of the Roman Catholic church in Eastern Europe.

Council Asks Federal Fund In Sewer Job

$40,000 Requested To Help Construct Gardendale's Line

Council enacted legislation Monday night asking a $40,000 federal grant to aid on construction of an $80,000 trunk line sewer project in Gardendale.

The aid will be sought under a law enacted by Congress Sept. 14, 1962, authorizing federal grants to bolster specific local public works projects, the resolution provides.

Plans have been under way for several years for the Gardendale project, which calls for construction of a trunk line to link the residential area with the Carpenters Run sewer line in California Hollow.

In recent weeks, Council reported plans for the project virtually were complete and a conference was held with residents of the Gardendale area to explain the details.

When the project first was proposed, Council indicated the work would be financed out of the construction fund of the sewage treatment department, which would eliminate any outlay on the part of the property-owners.

If the federal grant is obtained, the drain on the sewer revenue fund will be cut in half.

However, the construction of the

Justice Frees Waitress In Sale To Minor

A waitress at a Chester area tavern was found innocent of a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor at a hearing Monday night before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Beatrice Hughes of Hookstown R. D. 1, a waitress at Phil's Place on Route 39, was found not guilty of the charge filed by Hancock County sheriff's deputies because of lack of evidence. She had pleaded innocent.

Squire Herron explained that three Beaver County teen-agers, one 17 and the others 18, failed to appear at the hearing to testify.

The licensee of the tavern and another waitress were fined last week in connection with sale of beer to the 17-year-old industry boy. They were arrested Wednesday at 11:02 p. m.

Deputies returned to the establishment later and charged the Hookstown area woman with contributing, alleging she was involved in sale of beer to the 17-year-old boy. She had posted $106 bond for Monday's hearing.

Constables J. Carl Durham of Newell and Harold Davis of Chester accompanied deputies in the check of the tavern's Davis was present at last night's hearing.

Herron fined Emory Choma, 42, of Lisbon R. D. 2 $50 and costs on a charge of operating a boat while intoxicated, while Aline Choma, 43, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of being intoxicated

House Approves Wetzel Bill To 'Ring In' July 4

By Review Correspondent COLUMBUS — Stand by to ring 'dem bells!

Come July 4, it may be the vogue across the state as the result of House action Monday night.

The House adopted 110-0 a resolution encouraging four minutes of bell ringing in Ohio as part of a nationwide movement for "a real meaningful celebration of our nation's birth."

The sponsors, Rep. Robert H. Longworth, R-Carroll, and Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel, R-Columbiana, set the time from 1 to 1:04 p. m.

They said the idea is to have a simultaneous celebration, but it could be that part of Ohio will be an hour late or an hour early, whichever way you look at it.

The resolution doesn't specify whether the 1 p. m. is Eastern Daylight or Eastern Standard Time.

Petitions

seal-coating of existing blacktop streets and allocate $900 of the sum for completion of the oiling program, plus $4,100 for street department wages.

Councilman George E. Willshaw, finance committee chairman, replied immediately he did not favor the proposal. He said there was no seal-coating program in 1962 and the work is needed this year to maintain the surfaces of the streets.

"We have to get money somewhere for road oil," Councilman Kenneth C. Berg said. "Some of the streets haven't been taken care of."

"We need more oil and I'd like to know where we're going to get it," Owen said. Earlier, in response to a citizen's complaint from the floor, the director said $1,500 was appropriated for the oiling program this year, compared with $7,000 in 1962.

Councilman S. James Welch suggested an investigation by the finance committee.

Then Massey proposed that petitions for low cost street surfacing might not require the entire $7,000 appropriation. In that situation, some of the $7,000 could be used for oiling, he said. He queried Owen, who said only about five petitions for the street work have been filed so far.

Massey then suggested the June 30 deadline on the petitions to enable the city to learn its financial status in the program. Willshaw seconded the motion.

But Owen declared if the city waits until June 30 the necessity for the street program will have passed. He said about $900 would complete the oiling.

It was then that Massey proposed using $900 of the $7,000 appropriation to finance the oiling. Answering a question from Councilman Floyd Murray, he said the city can take the petitions on a "first come, first served" basis.

Murray asserted such action is "robbing Peter to pay Paul," but the motion was passed unanimously.

Earlier, a Beechwood household had complained the city's oil distributing truck had made repeated trips over one street, but "skimped" on others.

Owen, in reply, declared repeated applications are against the crew's instructions.

"If someone will produce proof that this actually happened and if the man has no excuse, I will fire him on the spot," Owen said.

However, N. T. Holbrook, park superintendent, points out that swimmers are permitted to play cards at poolside but that only gambling for money is prohibited. He adds that smoking is confined to a certain area of the pool enclosure as a safeguard against swimmers stepping on hot ashes.

The number of pool visits by youngsters at the Children's Home is regulated by the Board of Trustees, not the park superintendent or county commissioners.

The need for construction of a ski slope and ice skating rink at the park for winter sports was also cited. However, county commissioners do not have authority over such projects or what rules are established at the park which is operated by the state.

BUT MISS Callie Tsapis, member of the House of Delegates from the county, was present and took note of the various complaints and protests of the parents regarding the park.

In addition to Mrs. Grace, other parents at the meeting included Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny, Mrs. Jean Gibson, Richard Bennett and Mrs. Patricia Myers, all of New Cumberland; Mrs. Elaine Dawson, Mrs. Maxine Virden, Mrs. Martha Weyrich and Thomas Myers, all of Pughstown; Mrs. Maxine Mountjoy, Mrs. Virginia Conklin and Mrs. Irene Amer, all of Chester, and Miss Tsapis, an attorney in Chester-Weirton.

Commissioners Graham, James Finley and Robert Roach met briefly for business following the hour-long session with the delegation of parents.

A COMMITTEE was named to survey the county for possible need of a "bookmobile." Mrs. Floyd Grimm of New Cumberland is chairman, and others on the committee are Mrs. Lucinda Oyster and Mrs. Dale Hoyt, both of Chester, Mrs. Gussie Rice of New Cumberland and Oliver Johnson, county agricultural agent.

Commissioners approved a salary of $300 monthly for Nicholas Doddridge of Weirton, caretaker of Three Springs Cemetery.

Approval was given for the three commissioners, Assessor Arnold Anderson, Miss Helen Cuppy, deputy assessor, and Mrs. Mary Stewart, clerk of County Court, to attend a tax school of the West Virginia state tax commissioner July 14-16 in Charleston.

Authority was given County Clerk Donald G. Stewart and Dan Grossi, clerk of Circuit Court, to attend a school in Parkersburg June 12-15. Commissioners also designated three banks in Weirton as depositories for the new fiscal year.

laterals — the lines to link homes with the trunk line — will be a responsibility of the individual property owners, according to Council's initial plan.

Council's resolution stipulates that the city already has scheduled $450,000 in capital improvement work for 1963 and the Gardendale project will raise the total to $80,000. The $450,000 expenditure cited in the resolution covers the contemplated rebuilding of St. Clair Ave. from North Side to the city limits.

The resolution determining to seek the loan was passed unanimously without comment. Later, Councilman S. James Welch exhibited a plan for the project prepared by Engineer George S. Bloomgren. He said Bloomgren is available to consult with any resident of the area who has a question about the plans.

Miss Mary L. MacDonald, 86, a former Wellsville resident, died Monday at the Bethesda Home in Cincinnati, after a brief illness.

She had resided at the home 12 years. Miss MacDonald was born in Wellsville Nov. 13, 1876, to James L. MacDonald and Mrs. Rachael Henderson MacDonald. She was a graduate of Wellsville High School, the University of Indiana and Columbia University.

Miss MacDonald taught school in Wellsville for several years. She later went to Zanesville and then to Cincinnati. She retired 12 years ago. She was a member of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church when in Wellsville. Her father served many years as superintendent of the city school system and MacDonald building on 9th St. was named in his memory.

Her only survivors include two nieces, Miss Willa Jane MacDonald and Mrs. David T. Brookman, both of Wellsville, and two nephews, County Judge James L. MacDonald at Lisbon and Dr. Renwick MacDonald of Baltimore.

Services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. in the chapel of the Bethesda Home, 440 Lafayette Ave., Cincinnati.

Friends may call at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville Thursday from 10 a. m. to 1:50 p. m. Graveside services will be held at 2 p. m. at Springhill Cemetery by the Rev. James D. Sanko of the Riverside church.

Petitions

seal-coating of existing blacktop streets and allocate $900 of the sum for completion of the oiling program, plus $4,100 for street department wages.

Councilman George E. Willshaw, finance committee chairman, replied immediately he did not favor the proposal. He said there was no seal-coating program in 1962 and the work is needed this year to maintain the surfaces of the streets.

"We have to get money somewhere for road oil," Councilman Kenneth C. Berg said. "Some of the streets haven't been taken care of."

"We need more oil and I'd like to know where we're going to get it," Owen said. Earlier, in response to a citizen's complaint from the floor, the director said $1,500 was appropriated for the oiling program this year, compared with $7,000 in 1962.

Councilman S. James Welch suggested an investigation by the finance committee.

Then Massey proposed that petitions for low cost street surfacing might not require the entire $7,000 appropriation. In that situation, some of the $7,000 could be used for oiling, he said. He queried Owen, who said only about five petitions for the street work have been filed so far.

Massey then suggested the June 30 deadline on the petitions to enable the city to learn its financial status in the program. Willshaw seconded the motion.

But Owen declared if the city waits until June 30 the necessity for the street program will have passed. He said about $900 would complete the oiling.

It was then that Massey proposed using $900 of the $7,000 appropriation to finance the oiling. Answering a question from Councilman Floyd Murray, he said the city can take the petitions on a "first come, first served" basis.

Murray asserted such action is "robbing Peter to pay Paul," but the motion was passed unanimously.

Earlier, a Beechwood household had complained the city's oil distributing truck had made repeated trips over one street, but "skimped" on others.

Owen, in reply, declared repeated applications are against the crew's instructions.

"If someone will produce proof that this actually happened and if the man has no excuse, I will fire him on the spot," Owen said.

However, N. T. Holtbrook, park superintendent, points out that swimmers are permitted to play cards at poolside but that only gambling for money is prohibited. He adds that smoking is confined to a certain area of the pool enclosure as a safeguard against swimmers stepping on hot ashes.

The number of pool visits by youngsters at the Children's Home is regulated by the Board of Trustees, not the park superintendent or county commissioners.

The need for construction of a ski slope and ice skating rink at the park for winter sports was also cited. However, county commissioners do not have authority over such projects or what rules are established at the park which is operated by the state.

BUT MISS Callie Tsapis, member of the House of Delegates from the county, was present and took note of the various complaints and protests of the parents regarding the park.

In addition to Mrs. Grace, other parents at the meeting included Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny, Mrs. Jean Gibson, Richard Bennett and Mrs. Patricia Myers, all of New Cumberland; Mrs. Elaine Dawson, Mrs. Maxine Virden, Mrs. Martha Weyrich and Thomas Myers, all of Pughtown; Mrs. Maxine Mountjoy, Mrs. Virginia Conklin and Mrs. Irene Arner, all of Chester, and Miss Tsapis, an attorney in Chester-Weirton.

Commissioners Graham, James Finley and Robert Roach met briefly for business following the hour-long session with the delegation of parents.

A COMMITTEE was named to survey the county for possible need of a "bookmobile." Mrs. Floyd Grimm of New Cumberland is chairman, and others on the committee are Mrs. Lucinda Oyster and Mrs. Dale Hoyt, both of Chester, Mrs. Gussie Rice of New Cumberland and Oliver Johnson, county agricultural agent.

Commissioners approved a salary of $300 monthly for Nicholas Doddridge of Weirton, caretaker of Three Springs Cemetery.

Approval was given for the three commissioners, Assessor Arnold Anderson, Miss Helen Cuppy, deputy assessor, and Mrs. Mary Stewart, clerk of County Court, to attend a tax school of the West Virginia state tax commissioner July 14-16 in Charleston.

Authority was given County Clerk Donald G. Stewart and Dan Grossi, clerk of Circuit Court, to attend a school in Parkersburg June 12-15. Commissioners also designated three banks in Weirton as depositories for the new fiscal year.

laterals — the lines to link homes with the trunk line — will be a responsibility of the individual property owners, according to Council's initial plan.

Council's resolution stipulates that the city already has scheduled $450,000 in capital improvement work for 1963 and the Gardendale project will raise the total to $80,000. The $450,000 expenditure cited in the resolution covers the contemplated rebuilding of St. Clair Ave. from North Side to the city limits.

The resolution determining to seek the loan was passed unanimously without comment. Later, Councilman S. James Welch exhibited a plan for the project prepared by Engineer George S. Bloomgren. He said Bloomgren is available to consult with any resident of the area who has a question about the plans.

No citations were issued in two accidents investigated Monday by Wellsville police.

Officers said cars driven by Robert Murphy of Chester and Milton Spurny, 1230 Commerce St., Wellsville, collided at 11:10 p. m. at 10th and Commerce Sts.

Lewis Stavel of Weirton reported to police at 5:45 p. m. that his car was struck in the rear by one driven by Howard Gill of East Liverpool at the intersection of Broadway and 3rd St. Stavel said his car was knocked into the rear of another.

Patches On 2 Streets

Hotmix blacktop patching was used Monday on Chester Ave. from 15th to 20th Sts. and on Clark Ave. from 15th to 17th Sts., according to Wellsville Safety Director Fred Baldasare.

He said the patching program will be continued when weather permits.

Leroy D. Shamp, 34, of Georgetown was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to jail for 24 hours, and his driving license was revoked six months on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was found innocent of another charge of driving without an operator's license.

Kenneth L. Bailey of New Cumberland was fined $110 and costs on charges of obstructing traffic, trespassing and being intoxicated in public, while Harry D. Craig of Burgettstown was fined $50 and costs on intoxication in public.

Remember The Checks And Balances

If the Kennedy administration can come up with a legislative draft to take the judiciary off the firing line in the integration battle it will have obeyed the highest duty of American constitutionalism.

This is to remember in all trying situations that we live under a system of checks and balances that divides public responsibility into three segments—executive, legislative and judicial.

The integration battle has held the executive and judicial departments on the firing line for nine years. They have been sniped at, abused, opposed, slandered, undermined and undercut by everybody involved in the showdown.

Their defenders have been hard-pressed to protect them against so many outrageous accusations that ordinary accusations went unanswered.

THE EXECUTIVE department's use of military power and the judiciary's use of interpretive power have presented some of the toughest problems Americans ever pondered.

Throughout this, the legislative branch of the government has been on the sidelines.

Southern intransigence and the threat and practice of filibuster have made Congress useless as far as forming policy was concerned.

The executive and judicial branches, having filled the vacuum for so long, are entitled to help. It must be decided sometime whether Southern separatists are strong enough to hog-tie the federal government and impose their policy on the entire republic.

It must be decided sometime whether the business interests of the South are to be taken out of the middle in their desire to be free of racism agitated by self-serving politicians.

IT MUST BE decided sometime whether Southern Negroes are entitled to representation in Congress, where the Constitution guarantees it to them.

The system of checks and balances works when given a chance. It should be given a chance now.

There should be a showdown on the scandalous Democratic schism that permits the party to be for integration in the North and against integration in the South.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

History often repeats itself. It is a significant lesson in the experience which this country already has had with the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, which prohibited the manufacture, sale and transportation of alcoholic beverages.

Those of us who supported this amendment in 1919 and for many years afterwards discovered to our dismay that prohibition itself wasn't the basic issue. After 14 years of controversy, the repeal of the prohibition amendment was ratified by state conventions within 10 months after its approval by Congress.

The country was so sick and tired of the controversy and its disruption of American life that what the outcome will be. There is a significant lesson in the experience which this country already has had with the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, which prohibited the manufacture, sale and transportation of alcoholic beverages.

Those of us who supported this amendment in 1919 and for many years afterwards discovered to our dismay that prohibition itself wasn't the basic issue. After 14 years of controversy, the repeal of the prohibition amendment was ratified by state conventions within 10 months after its approval by Congress.

The country was so sick and tired of the controversy and its disruption of American life that people disregarded the merits of the prohibition question itself and decided to turn the problem back to the states, where it had been before federal intervention and compulsion was undertaken.

MEN AND WOMEN of all classes—even in government—patronized "speakeasies" and "bootleggers" operating to violate the law and the Constitution. Gangsterism spread throughout the land and flourished on the illicit trade. All this caused such a revulsion that the American people swept the issue of prohibition under the rug, where it has remained ever since.

Today most states are "wet," many having local option in the counties or sale of liquor only in state stores, and there still are remnants of the crime gangs which originated during the prohibition era. The issue itself, however, has not been agitated on the federal level for many years now.

What happened? Were the "drys" too extreme? Did they underestimate human nature when the right of an individual to choose his own personal habits was involved?

Both political parties for more than a decade supported prohibition in their national-convention platforms, but by 1932 each party platform moved over to the "wet" side and the end of prohibition came in 1933.

Now, there was no debate in those days over any decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, nor was there any quibble about the right of Congress to "regulate commerce among the states."

By explicit words in the Constitution and in federal law, the manufacture, sale and transportation of liquor was prohibited. "Bootlegging" in commerce, however, flourished, and the federal government could not recruit agents and marshals fast enough to arrest all the millions of violators.

WHAT BEARING has this on the racial controversy? First, there are today plenty of legal and constitutional disputes over what is "the law of the land." The 14th Amendment itself, for instance—the alleged source of federal power today—was "fraudulently" adopted in 1868.

The Constitution was deliberately violated after the war between the states was over in 1865, when a radical majority in Congress took away the seats of the Southern states in both houses and troops were sent to compel their "reconstructed" legislatures to ratify the 14th Amendment.

There is nothing in the Constitution, of course, which authorizes Congress at any time to force a state to ratify any proposed amendment to the Constitution.

Bitter feeling has remained in the South over the excesses of those Reconstruction Days. There are people in the North who say that all this now doesn't matter anyhow, since the 14th Amendment has been widely accepted as being in the Constitution, and since many cases have been decided by the Supreme Court on the assumption that the amendment is legal. But it so happens that the highest court in the land has refused several times in the last 75 years to take a single case involving the explicit issue of whether the ratification of the 14th Amendment was legal.

Apart from the controversy over legalities, many people in the South are deeply opposed to social mixing and regard it as a step toward intermarriage.

NOW IT'S BEING proposed by the Kennedy administration that all stores and businesses be required to integrate their customers and to hire a certain number of Negro employees. Economic coercion and threats against businesses are numerous and are even being made by officials of the federal government. This touches the individual almost as intimately as did the prohibition issue.

As the Negro leaders press their case in street demonstrations and as they publicize the issue everywhere, the disturbances, especially in the big cities in the North, will grow.

Business in many areas will be hurt. Many law-abiding Negroes will find life far more unpleasant than it has been in the past. In the end the American people will get so tired of the whole thing, they will adopt a constitutional amendment to turn the problem back to the states with the hope that gradualism will find its own solution and that equal rights will come some day, regardless of race, to those individuals who are efficient and skilful and have moral character.

'Cuban Shopping Lists' Aid Castro

By VICTOR RIESEL

Secret Castro agents, with special "Cuban shopping lists" in their hands and heads, are operating out of false purchasing fronts set up in Nassau, the Bahamas, Montreal and key cities in the United Kingdom.

These international operatives want to make the United States their supermarket for heavy machinery, transport equipment of all kinds, maritime engines, locomotives, insecticides for vital sugar and tobacco crops, and other agricultural chemicals. Without smuggling such heavy supplies as well as millions of spare parts out of the United States on the pretext of sales to non-Communist nations, the Cuban economy would collapse.

Our intelligence services, coordinated across the world by the tiny Investigations Division, Office of Export Control, Bureau of International Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce, is aware of this British cooperation with Castro and have reported it to the highest echelons in our government.

DESPITE official U.S. protests to London, the English have done nothing to discourage the use of Nassau as a Castro operating base. Instead, the British have increased their shipping direct to Cuba, especially fuel tankers. British firms, such as the Dunlop Tire Co., have put a man in Havana.

Therefore our government must act on its own to stop the Fidelistas from buying strategic material in the United States. This is almost impossible under the present undermanned system of counter investigation of the "shopping list" crowd. In the port of New York alone there are 10,000 export transactions processed daily. Of these, 7,000 go out by sea in some 40 ships and 3,000 by air in some 100 planes leaving Idlewild.

Policing all this are exactly eight men in New York. They have 13 colleagues in Washington. This force of 21 men and 14 clerks is all we have to throw against the vast international network of the Communist world—which gets an assist from some of our allies. And the 21 men are exactly what's available to cover not only New York harbor but such big ports as Philadelphia, Baltimore, Houston and all the rest.

WITH THE HELP of the Customs Department, special officers in our embassies abroad, and tips from merchants who won't do business with the Communists and from the longshoremen, the investigations division goes remarkably well.

But here is what it is up against. A typical Castro operation was cracked and frustrated some two years ago, just as it was succeeding in obtaining more than half a million dollars worth of insecticide in the United States. Americans are not permitted to sell this to Cuba.

So the Fidelistas set up a Panamanian agent. He placed orders in Miami. The insecticide so desperately needed by the Communist Cubans was to be sent to a Mexican company which was owned by a firm based in Nassau.

The insecticide, really bound for the money-making Cuban crops, was to be picked up in the port of Miami by an old tub. She was to steam slowly to Coatzacoalcas, a port 135 miles south of Veracruz on the Mexican Gulf coast. There it was to be secretly routed to Cuba.

And how was all this to be paid for? The Cubans got a Canadian bank to put money in its Nassau branch which then made credit available in a Miami bank on which the original Panamanian ian front for the so-called Mexican purchaser could draw.

OBVIOUSLY the Canadian and British authorities which keep close check on such big cash transactions knew what was happening—and must have known that eventually the money would be paid back to the Canadians by the Cuban Bank for Foreign Commerce.

Against this kind of operation, the United States throws a mere 21 specialists. Such cases develop every day.

In the last two weeks, the Office of Export Control, using its authority to wipe out export licenses, seized $50,000 worth of heavy industrial equipment.

Some weeks ago the investigations division discovered that a British firm known "to be extremely active in Cuba procurement efforts" was scrounging for special machinery among U.S. jobbers. The firm began picking up the equipment and sent out its first shipment worth $50,000. This was consigned to a buyer allegedly in Western Europe.

But our agents noted that the ship was to stop in a third port on its way from New York to a United Kingdom harbor. The department believed there would be a rerouting of the equipment to Cuba. It voided the license, cable ahead to have the machinery seized in the foreign port, reloaded it on a New York bound vessel. Now the material is back here.

Similarly, there has been interception of oscilloscopes (used in radar and bombers) and vital pumps for nickel mining. All in the past few weeks. And all by the work of 21 men. If we beef up this squad, we could really boycott Castro and put a strain on his colleague Khrushchev.

Memorable Week

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON
Next week—starting Monday—will be memorable in the history of civil rights in the United States. It could turn into a violent and dramatic week.

Alabama's Gov. George C. Wallace seems to think he can keep his state the way it is indefinitely; the only Southern state which doesn't have at least one Negro in its public schools.

On Monday he will try to make good, or so he says, on his promise to keep Negroes out of the University of Alabama. If he tries, he will be defying a federal court order to admit the Negroes.

The Kennedy administration has asked a federal district judge in Birmingham to issue an injunction against any interference by Wallace. The judge will give his decision on that Wednesday.

If Wallace's defiance causes trouble—he says he doesn't want any although the best way to avoid it is to comply with the court order—President Kennedy has troops in Alabama.

They can be used to back up the court order and suppress violence.

In taking this course Wallace has chosen to ignore the history of Mississippi's Gov. Ross Barnett who last year attempted to keep a Negro, James H. Meredith, out of the University of Mississippi in defiance of a court order.

Kennedy swept him aside with troops and marshals but not until there was a riot and two men were killed.

On Monday—or, if not Monday, then some day next week—Kennedy will send Congress civil rights bills upon which the Justice Department, headed by his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, has worked for days.

Since they couldn't be passed this week, even if delivered to Congress this week, they wouldn't have any effect on Wallace, psychologically or otherwise. Next week is a different story.

If violence breaks out in Alabama as a result of Wallace's defiance, the impact and perhaps the persuasiveness of the bills if delivered then would be far greater, even on Southern Democrats.

Nevertheless, they won't get through Congress without a fight by the Southerners who can be expected to filibuster against them, although perhaps not as wholeheartedly as in years past.

Buried Treasure

Desolate and inhospitable, tiny Cocos Island in the Pacific Ocean probably is one of the most dug up bits of land anywhere in the world.

For more than 150 years, the 104-square-mile Costa Rican island has been wishfully regarded as the site of fabulous buried wealth. In that time, the island has been probed, scoured, blasted and bored by countless treasure-seekers.

Estimates of treasure buried there by assorted buccaners, privateers, corsairs and pirates range from $20 million to $500 million.

Not a single doubloon has been recovered from the hoards of Benito Bonito of the Bloody Sword and renegade Captain Sharpnel, or the loot of Lima, hijacked by one Captain Thompson.

Some famous names have been associated with the Cocos treasure hunt. In 1904, the seventh Earl Fitzwilliam, then England's richest peer, landed with a party of nearly 100. The late Sir Malcolm Campbell, automobile and hydroplane speed king, visited in 1925. Ten years later, President Franklin D. Roosevelt stopped off at the island during a fishing trip aboard the cruiser U.S.S. Houston.

With a jovial "go ahead and find the treasure, boys," Roosevelt reportedly granted the crew shore leave.

Benjamin Franklin preferred the wild turkey to the bald eagle as the country's national symbol.

In the Virgin Islands the year-round temperature averages 78 degrees, with only six degrees variance between winter and summer.

In each community at this time of year, a debt of gratitude is owing to school teachers who finish their careers and pass into retirement.

The debt is not payable merely because the teachers reached retirement age. It is payable only to teachers who served beyond the call of duty. But the astonishing thing is that so many teachers fall into this category.

They looked upon their responsibility to children and the community with a professional eye. Teaching was not just a job but a personal challenge to do the best work in their power.

They performed faithfully in the classroom, as could have been expected. But they worked just as hard outside the classroom. They gave extra help to pupils, to other teachers, to parents and administrators.

They did this with no hope of money reward, only because it gratified them to perform extra service. It was part of their fulfillment as teachers.

They did not do it to earn special thanks—and except in rare instances they never get thanked at all. Their only reward is their personal gratification in knowing how many "second miles" they traveled on their own initiative, how many outstretched hands they grasped, how many hearts were warmed by their interest and how many lives were improved by their extra effort.

To all of them from all of us who profited by their solicitude, thanks. You made the difference between a mechanistic system of education and a system sensitive to the needs and capacities of its participants.

Politics vs. Free Inquiry

We do not see how Ohio legislators with an eye to the future ever could be talked out of voting for a proposal to ban Communists from speaking on state university campuses.

This is an automatic political decision. Communists must be banned everywhere, as far as politicians are concerned. J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI warned that banning them drives them underground, but even Mr. Hoover's prestige was bowled over by the political instinct to be recorded against Communist sin and for anti-Communist virtue.

The catch is—and the catch should be acknowledged for education's sake—that tax-supported state universities are subject to direct political control and nothing can change this.

The control varies from state to state and from time to time, but it's there as long as legislators and political officials hold the pursestrings.

Their decisions on inflamed issues like Communism are automatic. They must line up unequivocally against Communism or be accused by their opponents of being "Commie lovers." It's a "gut issue."

Only in privately supported schools and not even in all of them can the issue be threshed out on a basis of free inquiry and free speech.

This is one of the strongest reasons for supporting private education—to make sure that the automatic response of politicians on "gut issues" does not someday blight education as disastrously as it has blighted the proposition that people should support their government, not the other way around.

Mecca Of The Space Age

President Kennedy's presence at the Air Force Academy's graduation exercises this week will direct attention to the Mecca of the Space Age.

The glittering new service school's campus near Denver is referred to by jokers in the other service academies as "Disneyland East," but it's all in fun. Air Force Academy cadets sometimes speak of West Point as "160 years of tradition unhampered by progress."

The Air Force Academy is having its fifth graduation in its new home. Like all new schools, it has been scrutinized closely by academicians and given particular attention by critics of service academy education. The critics feel it should be better than it is, and the defenders feel it is excellent for what it is designed to be—preparation for combat leadership.

But the Air Force Academy is obviously going to be expected to do far more than train combat leaders. Its young men are going to be leaders in the Space Age looming dead ahead. West Point and Annapolis will be represented, too, as will other schools. But the Space Age is essentially the field of the Air Force.

Savage Earthlings

As a hard-working taxpayer and loyal moon-shot man, I was sick at heart over an announcement that our side's 16 astronauts are going to Panama to learn how to survive in jungles.

The 16 will include the original Mercury group of seven and the nine new astronauts selected a few months ago.

Unless I am missing some hidden significance, the Panama trip means the engineers planning the forthcoming outlay of billions to give the Russians something more to gulp about aren't sure of themselves.

Not only do they want our astronauts to know how to survive in the jungle but in the desert. They also have had water survival training, which is understandable because so far that's where U.S. space craft have landed.

But if the engineers are figuring on deserts and jungles, too, that means only one thing. They don't know where the astronauts are going to end up.

They might even come down in Central Park in New York City and be strangled by hoodlums. Or in one of those terror-ridden sections of Washington, D. C., where policemen walking in pairs aren't safe.

They might come down anywhere on earth, including places where survival would depend on fighting off those elements of the human race whose chief motivation is destruction of their fellow men.

It's an unexpected twist in the perils of space exploration—that a U.S. astronaut returning to earth after a successful exploration of the unknown might be in greater danger here than they were in there.

It would be as though they were visiting their own planet for the first time.

But the shocking thing is the admission by the engineers that they cannot be sure of bringing back the space ships to an exact point on the earth. One of the ships might land in the Arctic or Antarctic. Will there be a program to train astronauts for that eventuality, too?

What if one of our spacemen came down in Red China? Would his chances of survival be good? Or would the local yokels trump up charges that he was carrying on germ warfare against the People's Republic and starve him to death in a dirty jail?

To put the thing bluntly, is it possible the most dangerous place in the universe that men hope to explore in due time is earth itself and dark forebodings about the terrors of the unknown are really nothing but projections of the fears that plague earthlings?

As hard-working taxpayers and loyal moon-shooters we can forgive the engineers for not being quite sure where an astronaut may plop down on his return trip.

But it's harder to forgive mankind for the possibility the worst thing that might befall one of our astronauts or one of theirs would be to fall into hostile hands here on earth. There is no shortage of hostility.

An astronaut of the wrong color might even find himself battling for survival against dogs trained to pounce on human beings at command. They pounce with impartiality—on white men in nonwhite countries, on colored men in white countries.

All hazards considered, including the return to earth, it might be simpler to stay in orbit.

Supt. Paul Blair advised the board the State Department of Education has approved the purchase of a new school bus. The contract was awarded Mike Turk, Inc., in mid-February.

The superintendent was given permission to attend the Ohio Association of School Administrators meeting June 20-21 at Cedar Point and the national meeting of the Teachers Education and Professional Standards group June 25-28 at Columbus.

Blair will be one of three Ohio delegates to the TEPS meeting with his expenses being borne by the Ohio Education Association.

Partial Report Shows $679 In City MS Drive

An incomplete report issued today by George Garland of Youngstown, tri-county chairman, showed $679 was raised in East Liverpool Sunday and Monday in the annual house-to-house canvass to aid the Tru-Mah-Col Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Garland said reports had been received by Monday night from only 112 of the 280 volunteers who canvassed homes in the area. Volunteers should report as soon as possible, turning in the funds to the nearest fire station, Garland said. Drive leaders then will collect the money to be taken to the city headquarters at 123 W. 6th St.

Launched in mid-May, the tri-county drive is scheduled to end June 16.

Marshal Post At Rogers To Await Funds

ROGERS — Lack of sufficient funds prevented appointment of a new village marshal for which three applications were filed at a meeting of Council Monday night.

Robert Whitacre, Thurman Mercer and Sidney Cowan applied for the post from which William Barnhouse resigned last month to move to Bethesda.

Mayor Robert McCreary has been serving as acting marshal. Councilmen reported funds are not presently available to hire a regular marshal.

Mayor McCreary read a letter from Harry Stockdale, county sanitarian, who reported he had inspected the dump operated by the village and Middleton Township and found it "in good order." Fees totaling $4.50 were turned in from dump permits.

Council agreed to a request by the Montour Railroad Co. that a stipulation be made in the deed of a 150-by-250-foot site along Route 7 purchased from the railroad.

The stipulation would be that no building be erected less than 75 feet from the highway. The village plans to erect a small structure on the tract where the old railroad station once stood.

Bills totaling $295 were paid. Councilmen Wallace Swaney and William Crawford were absent.

The next meeting will be July 1 with Councilman Glenn Rhodes presiding. Mayor McCreary will be on vacation.

Repair Work On Standpipe Gets Sanction

Council gave approval Monday night to legislation authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to advertise for bids on installation of a new roof on one of the twin 185,000-gallon water storage standpipes on Henry Ave., a project estimated to cost approximately $2,600.

Council's action complied with a request received in a letter May 20 from W. O. Schneider, chairman of the board, which administers both the water and sewage departments. Schneider said the roof of the 35-year-old fabricated metal structure is "badly deteriorated," particularly at the point where it joins the vertical walls of the tank.

Erected in 1928, the standpipe is 20 feet in diameter and 70 feet high. The two standpipes have a combined capacity of 330,000 gallons.

In other action requested by the utilities board, Council approved legislation abolishing the post of sewer inspector and creating the job of maintenance man in the sewerage department at an hourly rate of $2.20.

The sewer inspector's post was held by Floyd E. Tice, who died about two months ago. It was paid on a salary basis at $4,980 a year.

Council first enacted an ordinance to abolish the inspector's post and then passed another piece of legislation establishing the job of maintenance man. The request for the job change also was made to Council in a letter received May 20 from Schneider. He explained that the maintenance man's duties will differ from those of the inspector.

The post will be under Civil Service protection, the legislation provides. That means the Municipal Civil Service Commission will conduct a test to fill the job upon request of the utilities board.

The inspector's duties will include making sewer taps, investigating complaints, repair of pumps, motors and other equipment and replacement of sewer conduits and manholes, the legislation provides.

More Women Sought To Serve Air Force

T.Sgt. James A. Lee, local Air Force recruiter, said the WAF program has been expanded and with the increased quota, a greater number of women may be eligible to enter the various technical training schools throughout the country.

Sgt. Lee, whose office is located at the City Hall, said that with the advent of the Aerospace Force, many new positions are available that were almost unknown just a few short years ago. Among them are the popular research and development fields of the many space projects now in progress. Other positions include those in communications, weather, personnel, and medical fields.

Appointments for interviews may be made by calling Sgt. Lee at FU. 6-6181.

Repair Work On Standpipe Gets Sanction

Council gave approval Monday night to legislation authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to advertise for bids on installation of a new roof on one of the twin 185,000-gallon water storage standpipes on Henry Ave., a project estimated to cost approximately $2,600.

Council's action complied with a request received in a letter May 20 from W. O. Schneider, chairman of the board, which administers both the water and sewer departments. Schneider said the roof of the 35-year-old fabricated metal structure is "badly deteriorated," particularly at the point where it joins the vertical walls of the tank.

Erected in 1928, the standpipe is 20 feet in diameter and 70 feet high. The two standpipes have a combined capacity of 330,000 gallons.

In other action requested by the utilities board, Council approved legislation abolishing the post of sewer inspector and creating the job of maintenance man in the sewerage department at an hourly rate of $2.20.

The sewer inspector's post was held by Floyd E. Tice, who died about two months ago. It was paid on a salary basis at $4,980 a year.

Council first enacted an ordinance to abolish the inspector's post and then passed another piece of legislation establishing the job of maintenance man. The request for the job change also was made to Council in a letter received May 20 from Schneider. He explained that the maintenance man's duties will differ from those of the inspector.

The post will be under Civil Service protection, the legislation provides. That means the Municipal Civil Service Commission will conduct a test to fill the job upon request of the utilities board.

The inspector's duties will include making sewer taps, investigating complaints, repair of pumps, motors and other equipment and replacement of sewer conduits and manholes, the legislation provides.

More Women Sought To Serve Air Force

Sgt. Lee, whose office is located at the City Hall, said that with the advent of the Aerospace Force, many new positions are available that were almost unknown just a few short years ago. Among them are the popular research and development fields of the many space projects now in progress. Other positions include those in communications, weather, personnel, and medical fields.

Appointments for interviews may be made by calling Sgt. Lee at FU. 6-6181.

Council Aid Asked

Fire Department
Fund Need Aired

The need for additional funds in the fire department, particularly for replacement or repair of the old North Side Station and for maintenance of trucks, was explained to Council Monday night by Chief Charles Bryan and Asst. Chief Alfred VanDyne.

Bryan asserted that the North Side Station, built in 1905, "is not fit for men to live there." It was closed in sub-zero cold last winter because the temperature inside the building could not be raised above 38 degrees, he said. Bryan said the station should be torn down or remodeled.

VANDYNE TOLD Council there is a possibility the state fire marshal's office may issue an order requiring the city to repair or replace the station "if something isn't done to make it habitable." VanDyne said plaster falls from the ceilings into the firemen's food and if a man walks upstairs, the plaster falls onto anyone remaining on the first floor.

VanDyne said he fears the fire marshal's office "will not hold off much longer" in issuing an order against the building.

Turning to the question of truck maintenance, he said a new pump is needed on the pumper at Central Station. The work will cost $400, he said. If the truck is not repaired, it probably will have to be taken out of service, VanDyne added.

Reporting on a survey of tire needs, he said 11 new casings are required on various trucks at a total cost of about $650. Some of the tires are 14 years old, VanDyne said.

TIRES ON THE North Side truck are cut, making it unsafe on emergency runs, and it may be deadlined, VanDyne said. He said the department received a $1,000 appropriation for maintenance in 1963, but it was eaten up quickly by a $900 bill carried over from 1962. Normally, Council appropriates $2,500 for maintenance and the sum is sufficient unless a major expense arises, he said.

Councilman George E. Willshaw, finance committee chairman, replied that he feels "all members of Council are in sympathy with the fire department." "In addition to $30,000 provided this year for a new truck, with less income, the appropriation is $13,000 more than it was in 1962," Willshaw replied.

"We can't do everything in one year. We realize the North Side Station needs repair, but it's not in the cards. That bill of $900 carried forward from last year was not called to Council's attention until two or three months ago. We didn't know anything about it. It may be possible to buy new tires in a long-range program, but we can't transfer money now—it's not available."

BRYAN THEN suggested that funds appropriated for the salary of Asst. Chief Dave Anderson, who retired recently, might be applied toward the purchase of the tires.

"That's the only chance; we'll investigate," Willshaw replied.

Safety-Service Director Robert Owen asked Council to consider the purchase of a mower for cutting grass in the wide planted areas along the new city Freeway. Investigation shows a used tractor-type mower can be purchased for $950 and a small riding type mower would cost about the same, he said. No action was taken.

Gerald Savors of Alton St. appeared personally before Council to request work on Sunnyside area streets. He said residents of the area have turned in petitions for various street improvements, but no action has been taken.

"What will Council go along with in the way of street improvements in that section of town?" he asked.

Councilman Edward Massey replied that petitions submitted earlier for improvement of Hubbard, Alton and John Sts. have been turned over to the city engineer's office for checking.

HE SAID the city will pay 2 per cent of the overall cost of a major street improvement—plus the cost of intersections—if it includes such work as sewers and curbs. He pointed out that leaves about 98 per cent of the cost to be footed by property-owners.

Savors said he signed a petition calling for a 50-50 split of the cost with the city.

"Unless Council passes legislation stipulating the city will pay 50 per cent of the cost of a major improvement, that won't go through," Massey replied.

Reporting for the ordinance committee, Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. said it is working on legislation authorizing the administration to contract for minor details in completion of the new incinerator department garage building on E. 2nd St. Massey, in a report of the claims committee, reported approval of a $110 bill against the city, filed by John Eddy, 128 Thompson Ave. Eddy reported water backed into his cellar when a city crew attempted to flush out a stopped sewer.

COUNCILMAN Kenneth Berg, reporting for the street committee, made a motion to table a request for abandonment of a section of Gaston Ave. in West End. The motion was approved.

The street committee was given a petition requesting abandonment of an alley between Bradshaw Ave. and Eugene Pl. It was signed by two property owners. A similar petition also was given the street committee, requesting abandonment of Division Alley in the Beechwood area. Signed by two property-owners, the petition said the alley is unused and "drops off over a steep hill."

Berg also reported approval of a request for a sign on Minnesota Ave. warning motorists to reduce speed.

Councilman Floyd Murray said he has received complaints of dust from a bus turn-around in East End. He asked Owen to investigate.

Berg commended the City Hospital Association on its construction of a new nurses' home. He also praised the Garden Club for placing benches in the business district for use of passersby.

Massey asked new study of an ordinance to require repair of sidewalks. The proposal originally was made last fall. Council approved his motion for an investigation by the ordinance committee.

The meeting opened with invocation by President Charles N. Edwards.

Legislative Traffic
Signs Face Senators

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—State senators were confronted with a forest of legislative traffic signs when they arrived at the Senate chamber Monday.

About 75 wives of state policemen were manning the gallery in a show of support for a shorter work week for their husbands.

Many carried signs similar to those which state troopers place along the highways—but with a difference.

"Vote carefully—the trooper you save may be mine."

"Seat belts save lives—reasonable hours save wives."

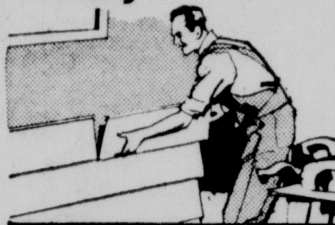

The wives were backing a bill that would reduce the maximum work week of state policemen to 50 hours.

Burglars Hit
Second Time

For the second time in a month, burglars broke into the J. & M. Trading Post, 514 Mulberry St., Sunday night or early Monday and fled with a movie camera, seven radios and assorted radio and television tubes valued in excess of $239. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kidder advised police late yesterday morning.

Mrs. Kidder told officers a Firestone hi-fi set valued at $89.95 and a Remington typewriter worth $149 was taken in a burglary on May 5. However, Mrs. Kidder said she reported the loss to the insurance company, but not to police.

In the latest burglary, the owners said five Channel Master radios valued at $19.95 each, a $29.95 model and another worth $34.95 were taken along with a Ricoh 8mm movie camera worth $69.95.

The thieves also took $5 in change from the cash register, police were told.

The burglary occurred between 7:30 p. m. Sunday and 8:30 a. m. yesterday, with entrance being gained through a window on the southeast corner of the building. The burglars then passed through a back room to reach the front of the store.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Doris Stillwagon, 1123½ Pennsylvania Ave., said her blue cotton jacket valued at $9 was stolen yesterday morning. Mrs. Stillwagon said she hung the jacket on a doorknob in the hall of the apartment and returned 30 minutes later to find it missing.

Betts Memorial
Fund Proposed
For Scholarship

A Ralph W. Betts Memorial Scholarship has been started with the Citizens Scholarship Foundation as an annual memorial to the former superintendent of schools.

Supt. Paul H. Blair told the Board of Education Monday night the scholarship fund is being sponsored by the East Liverpool Teachers Association, East Liverpool Principals Association and the Pottery City chapter of the Ohio Association of Public School Employees.

A $100 contribution to the scholarship fund already has been made in Mr. Betts' name, but more than $600 has already been contributed, the board was told.

Tentative plans call for the remainder to be established in a special fund to perpetuate the scholarship, Blair said.

Former Stunt Driver
In Unscheduled Crash

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—A former stunt driver who had wrecked 15 cars (in raceway thrill shows) claimed No. 16 Monday.

It happened to James D. Russell, 21, of Sidney, not more than five hours after he was graduated from Wittenberg University. He walked away unhurt from a crash on U. S. 40 about 10 miles east of here.

School Board Ponders
Additional Borrowing

With $82,000 still owed in bills, the Board of Education Monday night discussed the possibility of borrowing additional funds to pay outstanding obligations, but decided to delay a final decision until the June 17 meeting.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk-treasurer, suggested a new loan to pay off the old bills, explaining the board owes approximately $30,000 on taxes and other items in connection with the May payrolls, plus $51,806 in general bills.

C. Walter Ashbaugh, finance chairman, suggested the two-week delay after Miss Liebschner said she has been advised the final settlement on the first half real estate taxes is expected about June 15.

The amount to be paid hasn't been determined, but may approximate $150,000. However, some $130,000 will be required to meet payrolls this month, Miss Liebschner said.

The state foundation settlement of $199,180 was received last week, with two notes at the Pottery Bank & Trust Co. and the First National Bank totaling $99,000 being paid, plus $132 in interest.

It brings the amount paid out in interest since the first of the year to $832, $232 more than the board appropriated.

Income Levy
Helps Bolster
Lag In Funds

General fund receipts in the first four months of 1963 were down $20,325, compared with the same time in 1962, but the deficit was overcome by transfers from city income tax funds, which totaled $105,430 in the same period, Councilman George E. Willshaw, finance committee chairman, reported to Council Monday night.

In addition to the general fund, the income tax receipts were used to bolster the appropriations of other departments, Willshaw said. As another branch of the government operating in part on receipts from the income tax, he mentioned the street department.

Revenue from all sources in the general fund hit $107,788 in the first four months of the year, compared with $128,033 at the same time in 1962, Willshaw said. The principal drop was in real estate taxes, which totaled $55,000 for the first four months of this year, compared with $64,000 at the same time in 1962, he added.

Total expenses of the general fund in the first four months were $157,986, or $50,198 less than the income, Willshaw pointed out. Wages and salaries cost $121,128 and other expenses hit $36,158.

If the city did not have the income tax revenue, it would face a $150,000 year-end deficit in the general fund, or have to trim expenses by that amount, he pointed out.

"But we're not operating in the red," Willshaw said. "We have used the income tax receipts to bolster other funds. It produced $105,430 in the first four months and part of the receipts were transferred to take care of the general fund deficit and to help the street department and other departments."

Willshaw said the finance committee had anticipated presenting quarterly reports on receipts and expenditures. However, all the figures were not available at the end of March, so the summary was delayed, finally embracing four months, he said.

Miss Liebschner reported a balance of $32,915.69 in all funds, including $47,350.71 in the general fund, $16,139.99, cafeteria; $9,463.81, repair and maintenance; $397.28, night schools, and $2,212.59, improvement. There are deficits of $37,278.59 in the bond retirement fund, $231.11, workbooks, $540, nurses' aid training, and $4,598.99 in Title III funds.

Board members expressed concern at the inability to meet the general obligations, pointing out they realize the businesses to whom money is owed also must meet their obligations.

The board has been living with a financial crisis since the first of the year. Members have attributed the problem to the delay in the collection of real estate taxes caused by the county-wide property reappraisal.

Council Aid Asked

Fire Department Fund Need Aired

The need for additional funds in the fire department, particularly for replacement or repair of the old North Side Station and for maintenance of trucks, was explained to Council Monday night by Chief Charles Bryan and Asst. Chief Alfred VanDyne.

Bryan asserted that the North Side Station, built in 1905, "is not fit for men to live there." It was closed in sub-zero cold last winter because the temperature inside the building could not be raised above 38 degrees, he said. Bryan said the station should be torn down or remodeled.

VANDYNE TOLD Council there is a possibility the state fire marshal's office may issue an order requiring the city to repair or replace the station "if something isn't done to make it habitable." VanDyne said plaster falls from the ceilings into the firemen's food and if a man walks upstairs, the plaster falls onto anyone remaining on the first floor.

VanDyne said he fears the fire marshal's office "will not hold off much longer" in issuing an order against the building.

Turning to the question of truck maintenance, he said a new pump is needed on the pumper at Central Station. The work will cost $400, he said. If the truck is not repaired, it probably will have to be taken out of service, VanDyne added.

Reporting on a survey of tire needs, he said 11 new casings are required on various trucks at a total cost of about $650. Some of the tires are 14 years old, VanDyne said.

TIRES ON THE NORTH SIDE truck are cut, making it unsafe on emergency runs, and it may be declared, VanDyne said. He said the department received a $1,000 appropriation for maintenance in 1963, but it was eaten up quickly by a $900 bill carried over from 1962. Normally, Council appropriates $2,500 for maintenance and the sum is sufficient unless a major expense arises, he said.

Councilman George E. Willshaw, finance committee chairman, replied that he feels "all members of Council are in sympathy with the fire department." "In addition to $30,000 provided this year for a new truck, with less income, the appropriation is $13,000 more than it was in 1962," Willshaw replied.

"We can't do everything in one year. We realize the North Side Station needs repair, but it's not in the cards. That bill of $900 carried forward from last year was not called to Council's attention until two or three months ago. We didn't know anything about it. It may be possible to buy new tires in a long-range program, but we can't transfer money now—it's not available."

BRYAN THEN suggested that funds appropriated for the salary of Asst. Chief Dave Anderson, who retired recently, might be applied toward the purchase of the tires.

"That's the only chance; we'll investigate," Willshaw replied.

Safety-Service Director Robert Owen asked Council to consider the purchase of a mower for cutting grass in the wide planted areas along the new city Freeway. Investigation shows a used tractor-type mower can be purchased for $950 and a small riding type mower would cost about the same, he said. No action was taken.

Gerald Savors of Alton St. appeared personally before Council to request work on Sunnyside area streets. He said residents of the area have turned in petitions for various street improvements, but no action has been taken.

"What will Council go along with in the way of street improvements in that section of town?" he asked.

Councilman Edward Massey replied that petitions submitted earlier for improvement of Hubbard, Alton and John Sts. have been turned over to the city engineer's office for checking.

HE SAID the city will pay 2 per cent of the overall cost of a major street improvement—plus the cost of intersections—if it includes such work as sewers and curbs. He pointed out that leaves about 98 per cent of the cost to be footed by property-owners.

Savors said he signed a petition calling for a 50-50 split of the cost with the city.

"Unless Council passes legislation stipulating the city will pay 50 per cent of the cost of a major improvement, that won't go through," Massey replied.

Reporting for the ordinance committee, Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. said it is working on legislation authorizing the administration to contract for minor details in completion of the new incinerator department garage building on E. 2nd St. Massey, in a report of the claims committee, reported approval of a $110 bill against the city, filed by John Eddy, 128 Thompson Ave. Eddy reported water backed into his cellar when a city crew attempted to flush out a stopped sewer.

COUNCILMAN Kenneth Berg, reporting for the street committee, made a motion to table a request for abandonment of a section of Gaston Ave. in West End. The motion was approved.

The street committee was given a petition requesting abandonment of an alley between Bradshaw Ave. and Eugene Pl. It was signed by two property owners. A similar petition also was given the street committee, requesting abandonment of Division Alley in the Beechwood area. Signed by two property-owners, the petition said the alley is unused and "drops off over a steep hill."

Berg also reported approval of a request for a sign on Minnesota Ave. warning motorists to reduce speed.

Councilman Floyd Murray said he has received complaints of dust from a bus turn-around in East End. He asked Owen to investigate.

Berg commended the City Hospital Association on its construction of a new nurses' home. He also praised the Garden Club for placing benches in the business district for use of passersby.

Massey asked new study of an ordinance to require repair of sidewalks. The proposal originally was made last fall. Council approved his motion for an investigation by the ordinance committee.

The meeting opened with invocation by President Charles N. Edwards.

FOR MANY of them the next step will take them on to college, for specialized training in chosen careers. For others, graduation day will open the door to full-time work in business, industry or the service trades. Whichever field they enter, we join their parents and friends in offering sincere congratulations and best wishes.

WE ARE indeed glad to have had a hand in helping these ambitious carrier-students equip themselves for promising careers. Their newspaper routes have added an important PLUS to their formal education.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Boy Shouldn't Strike His Sisters

You know well the aggressive youngster, who, on the slightest provocation, hits, kicks or bites weaker children. Then there's the child, usually under eight or ten, who, on passing or coming near a younger or older person of the family, "socks" him for no apparent reason, some Dr. Garry Meyers writes. "Our biggest problem at the moment is that our son is always socking his sisters, not fighting but just punching them every time he walks by them. This problem keeps going on."

They were greatly annoyed by this practice. But when told by their parents to "sock him back" on a safe place, they wouldn't do so. A much older child rarely would. The father said he told the offending lad he would have to sit in a chair half an hour for each offense thereafter, but that he might sock his dad any time he wished without fear even of rebuke. "It worked," the father said, "and he had to be punished only a few times."

Perhaps the biggest factor in the correction was the privilege the lad had to "sock" his father when he felt like socking somebody.

Some young mother may wonder what she might do to cure her tot two, three or four of biting, kicking or hitting other children who are weaker, or even his mother.

USUALLY, IF THE child attends nursery school, he gradually discontinues such aggressive acts through gentle restraint by the teacher and natural discipline by other children, for a definite period for each offense, especially when this isolation can occur immediately.

Unfortunately, in most cases the parent does not apprehend the offender but is told about his offense. Punishment then is usually too late to be effective.

Knowing your little tot is inclined to bite, hit or kick others without due provocation, you should aim to be often on hand while he is with other children. If you can apprehend him personally, especially before the practice has gone on for many days, you might do best by turning him over your knee suddenly and smacking him soundly.

JUST TO BITE back the biting child might also be effective, but it's too dangerous. You could bite too hard.

My bulletins, "Preventing a Reducing Jealousy", "How to Teach Child Meaning of No" and "Tot Learning to be Sociable", may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Operation Requires Alertness Against Fat

The problem of many convalescents is how to regain strength but forestall a weight gain. During the recuperative period nutrient needs are high, but fuel requirements diminish.

You are probably convalescing in the hospital, at least for a short while. If you are past pleasingly Ida Jean Kain plump, it will be a mistake to go ahead and eat three full meals a day, plus the nourishing extras.

Talk this over with your doctor. If he agrees that a weight gain should be avoided, he will suggest to the dietitian in charge that your meals be restricted to 1,200 or 1,400 calories a day.

Lying in bed you use fewer calories than when you are up and around. On the average, convalescents and invalids use only 12½ calories per pound in a 24 hour period.

SAY A PATIENT weighs 130 to 140 pounds. Her lying in bed fuel requirements are covered by 1,300 to 1,400 calories a day.

There it is, a convalescent needs no more calories than are contained in a generous reducing diet. It's easy to reason that if you eat as usual, you will add pounds. Worse, you up your appetite and the temptation is to continue to overeat when you go home.

Back to the convalescent diet: A point that cannot be over-emphasized is this: The quality of the calories is all important. The term calories expresses the amount of fuel furnished in a given food, a meal or in the day's total. The number of calories is not a measure of the nutrients furnished.

Regardless of calories, meals should be patterned on the protective foods which provide their full share of the essentials needed to build red blood and tissue-building protein, minerals and vitamins. Following an operation, there is an increased need for replacement of the body replenishing nutrients.

The dietitian at the hospital can plan menus that are high in all essentials, but low enough in calories to prevent an unnecessary weight gain.

When you return home, plan each meal around a high value protein food, for protein helps to speed the repair processes. Talk with your doctor and with the dietitian about your diet pattern.

GIVE CONSIDERABLE thought to meal planning during the recuperative period. This will pay dividends for years to come.

Then, instead of looking back at your operation as the turning point overweight, it can be the turning point toward ideal weight.

Send a long stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Farrell Threatens No-Hit Barrier In Stopping LA

Houston Hurler Finishes With 2-Hitter; Twins Fall, Chisox Win

By JIM HACKLEMAN Associated Press Sports Writer

Isn't it about time the hitters started catching up with the pitchers?

This season's trend of the men on the mound dominating the men with the bats continued Monday night as three right-handers strongarmed their way to impressive victories in the only major league action.

Fireballing Dick Farrell of the Houston Colts became the latest to threaten the no-hit barrier, holding the Los Angeles Dodgers hitless for 7.13 innings in a 2-1 triumph over the slumping National League contenders.

The 20-game loser of last season, backed by rookie Rusty Staub's first big league homer, finished with a two-hit job and the Dodgers finished with their fifth straight loss.

Eddie Fisher turned in a four-hit shutout as the Chicago White Sox climbed to within five percentage points of the American League lead with a 4-0 decision over the Los Angeles Angels.

Dave Wickersham also threw a four-hitter, pitching the Kansas City Athletics to victory over the Minnesota Twins 4-1. The Twins' only run was unearned as they fell to the A's for the sixth time in seven games this year.

Farrell allowed his former club just three walks before the no-hit spell was broken with one out in the eighth inning.

Dick Tracewski was the culprit, with a clean single to center. Then in the ninth, Jim Gilliam led off with a triple and eventually scored on Tommy Davis' sacrifice fly. The burly fast-baller now is 5-6.

Staub connected for a 400-foot shot following a walk to Carl Warwick in the fourth for the decisive blow off Don Drysdale, who struck out 13 and gave up seven hits in seven innings as his record fell to 6-6.

The loss dropped the Dodgers into a third-place tie with the Chicago Cubs, four games back of San Francisco and two behind St. Louis.

Despite Fisher's fine pitching and their rise in the AL standings, the White Sox' victory at Los Angeles proved costly. Joe Cunningham, their slick-hitting first baseman, broke his right collarbone when he tripped over first running out a grounder and is expected to be out at least two months.

Fisher's shutout came in his first complete game in nine starts this year and boosted the White Sox into a second-place tie with Baltimore.

The White Sox nicked Bob Turley for eight of their nine hits and all four of their runs in five innings-plus.

A fifth inning homer by Doc Edwards gave Wickersham and Kansas City a 1-0 margin over Camilo Pascual and the Twins through seven innings, then the A's pushed across three more against reliever Ray Moore—with the help of a costly error by right fielder Bob Allison.

Wucherer Receives 5th Greene Memorial Award

Veteran bowler Clarence (Butch) Wucherer (center) became the fifth recipient of the Johnny Greene Memorial trophy which was presented Monday night at the National League bowling banquet at the Travelers Hotel.

Wucherer, who is proprietor of the Tri-State Lanes in Calcutta, has long been associated with bowling and is listed as one of the outstanding bowlers in the district.

He is shown accepting the trophy from Harry Early, secretary-treasurer of the City Bowling Association, and receiving congratulations from Mrs. Margaret Greene, widow of Johnny Greene who died in 1955.

The trophy is presented annually to the bowler who best depicts the friendly characteristics which marked Johnny Greene.

Past recipients of the award select the winner each year and they are Buck Wilson, Al Sayre, George Simballa and Gene Covert.

Also honored with Wucherer was the Globe Brick team which captured the 1963 championship in the National League.

Pete Chelaflo, president, presided for the annual awards banquet.

As New War Over Control Develops Eastern Schools Pull Out Of AAU Track Competition

By JIM BECKER Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The war for control of track in this country exploded anew today, with the United States team that will oppose the Russians in Moscow in July caught squarely in the fall-out.

In the latest move in the alphabet soup battle, the nation's largest college conference, the Eastern College Athletic Conference, in effect ruled that its athletes should not compete in the national Amateur Athletic Union track championships, where the U.S. team for Russia will be picked.

In California, there were indications the powerful Big Six Conference would follow suit, and Payton Jordan, who will coach the U.S. team against Russia, said the move might cancel the trip to Moscow.

The AAU leveled a charge that the colleges, who are battling the old amateur organization for track control, are out to wreck the American team and will be glad to do so.

Asa Bushnell, ECAC commissioner, promptly denied the charges and said his group wanted its athletes to compete in the AAU nationals "but we want them to do so under procedures established" at a peace negotiations session with Gen. Douglas MacArthur March 12.

The AAU also said that only one college athlete so far has entered the national championships, C. K. Yang of Formosa, the decathlon world record holder who is not eligible for the U.S. team.

The AAU called for a new ruling on the dispute from General MacArthur, who patched up the shaky peace that exists between the AAU and the U.S. Track and Field Federation, the rival group sponsored by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The latest flareup came when the ECAC reversed its field and asked its members to stay out of AAU championships unless the AAU asked the Federation for sanction.

The AAU contends that this is dual sanction, and flatly refuses. College athletic directors in the area immediately said they would comply with the ECAC request, and pull their athletes out of AAU meets, including the New York Athletic Club games next Saturday.

The AAU nationals are scheduled for St. Louis June 20-21. The U.S. team for Russia will be picked there.

If the colleges boycott the meet, the U.S. team will probably be overwhelmed by the Russians, who have never yet beaten an American men's team. The colleges control most of the top runners at the shorter distances.

Potts Is Moved To Varsity Staff

The transfer of James Potts from Westgate Junior High to the high school where he will become a member of the varsity football coaching staff was approved Monday night by the Board of Education.

Potts, assistant football coach at Westgate and a former Potter and Bowling Green State University football star, will become varsity backfield coach. Potts was the regular quarterback for two seasons at Bowling Green leading the Falcons to the Conference title his final year.

In response to a question from James Moss, vice president, Supt. Paul H. Blair said a survey of schools of East Liverpool's size showed the Potters have one less assistant coach than they do. Potts' elevation was approved by Coach Bob Hedmond, the superintendent added.

Belmont Stakes Has 2 Favorites

NEW YORK (AP)—The Belmont Stakes at Aqueduct Saturday is shaping up as a two-horse race or what could be billed as the third and rubber clash between the winners of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

That would be, of course, Chateaugay and Candy Spots with the winner likely to gain the title as 1963 champion three-year-old in addition to first money from the $125,000-added purse.

With a small field in prospect for their rubber meeting in this last event in racing's triple crown, there promises to be no excuse for either camp. The Belmont is at a testing 1 1/2-mile compared to the Derby's 1 mile and the Preakness' 1 3/16.

At the moment there are only five other prospects for the Belmont and some of those are doubtful. The five: Get Around, Top Gallant, Tom Cat, Insurrection and Outing Class.

McBurney's Continue To Set National Pace

McBurney's continued to hold the lead in the National division of the Little League by edging Chester Legion, 4-3, Monday while Travelers dumped Millirons, 6-3, in the American division.

Karl Sayre was the winning pitcher for McBurney's and showed seven strikeouts. Rick Steffen's double and single paced the winners while Dan Myers and Sayre tripled. Murray smacked a single and double for the losers. John Smith, the losing hurler, fanned nine batters.

Don Smith gained the nod on the mound for Travelers and led his team with two hits. Kim Kemple was the loser with Keith Steiner's two hits leading the way.

Crackers, Vees Wins Twin Bills

By The Associated Press

The Atlanta Crackers and the Richmond Vees are making habits of winning doubleheader baseball games in the International League.

The Crackers swept to their sixth consecutive twinbill victory Monday night, defeating Rochester 1-0 and 6-3, while Richmond won its second straight doubleheader by whipping Indianapolis 3-2 and 8-3.

Atlanta thus increased its Southern Division lead to eight games over second place Indianapolis.

Farrell Disturbs Mates By Talking Of No-Hitter

HOUSTON (AP)—Dick (Turk) Farrell of the Houston Colts wanted a no-hitter Monday night. For seven and one-third innings he had one going against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

He distressed his teammates with his conversations about it.

But in the end he had to settle for a two-hit, 2-1 victory over the Dodgers who collected one hit in the eighth and another and their only run in the ninth.

In the sixth inning, Farrell, a fast-baller who lost 20 games last season, came into the Houston dugout, seated himself next to Bob Aspromonte, and said:

"Okay, Aspro, tell the guys to be on their toes and make some good catches. I want this no-hitter."

Aspromonte jumped as though someone had poked him with a sharp stick.

"Shut up, Turk," he said nervously. "Not so loud."

Dick Tracewski's one-out single in the eighth and Jim Gilliam's triple in the ninth ended Farrell's dreams of grandeur.

Farrell, who won his fifth game against six defeats, said the pitch to Tracewski was a "slider that didn't slide" and the pitch to Gilliam was a fast ball. Gilliam scored the only Dodger run on a sacrifice fly.

The two-hitter was Farrell's second of the year and it represented his nearest brush with no-hit fame. He had seven hitless innings against the Cubs and also wound up with a two-hitter, striking out 13.

He fanned only five Monday night. Frank Howard went down four times.

Chisox Lose Cunningham For At Least Two Months

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Chicago White Sox won the battle but lost a warhorse.

Veteran first baseman Joe Cunningham, who had a .302 career batting average going into this season, suffered a fractured collar bone at Chavez Ravine Monday night when he tripped and fell at first base running out a ground ball. A doctor said Cunningham won't play for at least two months.

The White Sox won the game—defeating Los Angeles 4-0 behind four-hit pitching by Eddie Fisher—and the victory put them just five percentage points out of the American League lead.

Cunningham, ironically, was hurt for hustling. It appeared he didn't have a chance to beat out the grounder he hit to Angel second baseman Billy Moran in the fifth inning.

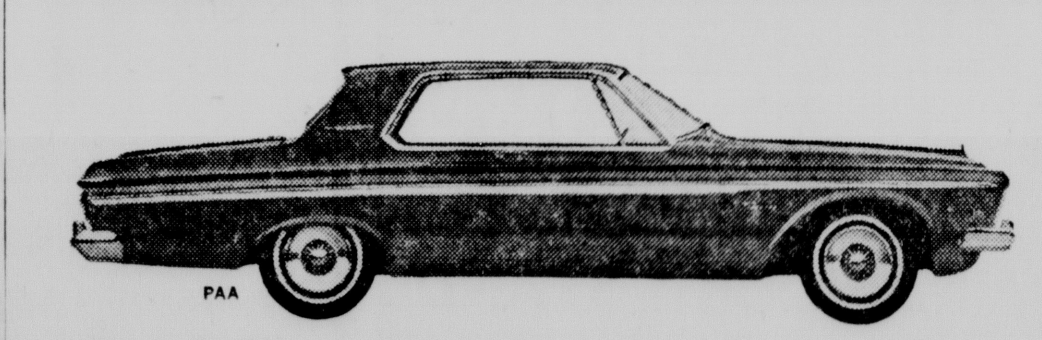

But Cunningham, characteristically, was running full tilt. Angel first baseman Charley Dees had his right foot on the bag and Joe stepped on the heel of Dees' shoe. That threw Cunningham completely off balance and he landed heavily on his right shoulder, perhaps 19 feet past the base.

Chicago Manager Al Lopez dashed into the field. "Is your head all right?" he asked Cunningham.

"It's my shoulder," Joe said. "As soon as the doctor looked

Crackers, Vees Wins Twin Bills

By The Associated Press

The Atlanta Crackers and the Richmond Vees are making habits of winning doubleheader baseball games in the International League.

The Crackers swept to their sixth consecutive twinbill victory Monday night, defeating Rochester 1-0 and 6-3, while Richmond won its second straight doubleheader by whipping Indianapolis 3-2 and 8-3.

Atlanta thus increased its Southern Division lead to eight games over second place Indianapolis.

The Buffalo Bisons retained their lead in the Northern circuit by tripping Columbus 8-7.

In other action, Jacksonville edged Syracuse 4-3 and Arkansas beat Toronto 6-3.

Columbus took a 5-0 lead over Buffalo after two innings but the Bisons bounced back twice to edge the Jets. Marv Throneberry's two-run homer in the fifth tied the score at 5-5. It was tied at 7-7 in the ninth but Throneberry scored the winning run on Chris Cannizzaro's sacrifice fly.

Ed Bailey, John Edwards, Jim Hickman and Bill White were the first four National Leaguers to hit grand slam home runs this spring.

Wucherer Receives 5th Greene Memorial Award

Veteran bowler Clarence (Butch) Wucherer (center) became the fifth recipient of the Johnny Greene Memorial trophy which was presented Monday night at the National League bowling banquet at the Travelers Hotel.

Wucherer, who is proprietor of the Tri-State Lanes in Calcutta, has long been associated with bowling and is listed as one of the outstanding bowlers in the district.

He is shown accepting the trophy from Harry Early, secretary-treasurer of the City Bowling Association, and receiving congratulations from Mrs. Margaret Greene, widow of Johnny Greene who died in 1955.

The trophy is presented annually to the bowler who best depicts the friendly characteristics which marked Johnny Greene.

Farrell Disturbs Mates By Talking Of No-Hitter

HOUSTON (AP)—Dick (Turk) Farrell of the Houston Colts wanted a no-hitter Monday night. For seven and one-third innings he had one going against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

He distressed his teammates with his conversations about it.

But in the end he had to settle for a two-hit, 2-1 victory over the Dodgers who collected one hit in the eighth and another and their only run in the ninth.

In the sixth inning, Farrell, a fast-baller who lost 20 games last season, came into the Houston dugout, seated himself next to Bob Aspromonte, and said:

"Okay, Aspro, tell the guys to be on their toes and make some good catches. I want this no-hitter."

Aspromonte jumped as though someone had poked him with a sharp stick.

"Shut up, Turk," he said nervously. "Not so loud."

Dick Tracewski's one-out single in the eighth and Jim Gilliam's triple in the ninth ended Farrell's dreams of grandeur.

Farrell, who won his fifth game against six defeats, said the pitch to Tracewski was a "slider that didn't slide" and the pitch to Gilliam was a fast ball. Gilliam scored the only Dodger run on a sacrifice fly.

The two-hitter was Farrell's second of the year and it represented his nearest brush with no-hit fame. He had seven hitless innings against the Cubs and also wound up with a two-hitter, striking out 13.

He fanned only five Monday night. Frank Howard went down four times.

Chisox Lose Cunningham For At Least Two Months

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Chicago White Sox won the battle but lost a warhorse.

Veteran first baseman Joe Cunningham, who had a .302 career batting average going into this season, suffered a fractured collar bone at Chavez Ravine Monday night when he tripped and fell at first base running out a ground ball. A doctor said Cunningham won't play for at least two months.

The White Sox won the game—defeating Los Angeles 4-0 behind four-hit pitching by Eddie Fisher—and the victory put them just five percentage points out of the American League lead.

Cunningham, ironically, was hurt for hustling. It appeared he didn't have a chance to beat out the grounder he hit to Angel second baseman Billy Moran in the fifth inning.

But Cunningham, characteristically, was running full tilt. Angel first baseman Charley Dees had his right foot on the bag and Joe stepped on the heel of Dees' shoe. That threw Cunningham completely off balance and he landed heavily on his right shoulder, perhaps 10 feet past the base.

Chicago Manager Al Lopez dashed onto the field. "Is your head all right?" he asked Cunningham.

"It's my shoulder," Joe said. "As soon as the doctor looked

As New War Over Control Develops

Eastern Schools Pull Out Of AAU Track Competition

By JIM BECKER Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The war for control of track in this country exploded anew today, with the United States team that will oppose the Russians in Moscow in July caught squarely in the fall-out.

In the latest move in the alphabet soup battle, the nation's largest college conference, the Eastern College Athletic Conference, in effect ruled that its athletes should not compete in the national Amateur Athletic Union track championships, where the U.S. team for Russia will be picked.

In California, there were indications the powerful Big Six Conference would follow suit, and Payton Jordan, who will coach the U.S. team against Russia, said the move might cancel the trip to Moscow.

The AAU leveled a charge that the colleges, who are battling the old amateur organization for track control, are out to wreck the American team and will be glad to do so.

Asa Bushnell, ECAC commissioner, promptly denied the charges and said his group wanted its athletes to compete in the AAU nationals "but we want them to do so under procedures established" at a peace negotiations session with Gen. Douglas MacArthur March 12.

The AAU also said that only one college athlete so far has entered the national championships, C. K. Yang of Formosa, the decaathlon world record holder who is not eligible for the U.S. team.

The AAU also called for a new ruling on the dispute from General MacArthur, who patched up the shaky peace that exists between the AAU and the U.S. Track and Field Federation, the rival group sponsored by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The latest flareup came when the ECAC reversed its field and asked its members to stay out of AAU championships unless the AAU asked the Federation for sanction.

The AAU contends that this is dual sanction, and flatly refuses. College athletic directors in the area immediately said they would comply with the ECAC request, and pull their athletes out of AAU meets, including the New York Athletic Club games next Saturday.

The AAU nationals are scheduled for St. Louis June 20-21. The U.S. team for Russia will be picked there.

If the colleges boycott the meet, the U.S. team will probably be overwhelmed by the Russians, who have never yet beaten an American men's team. The colleges control most of the top runners at the shorter distances.

Potts Is Moved To Varsity Staff

The transfer of James Potts from Westgate Junior High to the high school where he will become a member of the varsity football coaching staff was approved Monday night by the Board of Education.

Potts, assistant football coach at Westgate and a former Potter and Bowling Green State University football star, will become varsity backfield coach. Potts was the regular quarterback for two seasons at Bowling Green leading the Falcons to the Conference title his final year.

In response to a question from James Moss, vice president, Supt. Paul H. Blair said a survey of schools of East Liverpool's size showed the Potters have one less assistant coach than they do. Potts' elevation was approved by Coach Bob Hedmond, the superintendent added.

Belmont Stakes Has 2 Favorites

NEW YORK (AP)—The Belmont Stakes at Aqueduct Saturday is shaping up as a two-horse race or what could be billed as the third and rubber clash between the winners of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

That would be, of course, Chateaugay and Candy Spots with the winner likely to gain the title as 1963 champion three-year-old in addition to first money from the $125,000-added purse.

With a small field in prospect for their rubber meeting in this last event in racing's triple crown, there promises to be no excuse for either camp. The Belmont is at a testing 1 1/2-mile compared to the Derby's 1 mile and the Preakness' 1 3/16.

At the moment there are only five other prospects for the Belmont and some of those are doubtful. The five: Get Around, Top Gallant, Tom Cat, Insurrection and Outing Class.

Don Smith gained the nod on the mound for Travelers and led his team with two hits. Kim Kemple was the loser with Keith Steiner's two hits leading the way.

Finsterwald Winner Of 500 By Two

By DALE BURGESS
Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A golf course with as little rough as a well-kept cemetery, a crisp putter and a dedicated caddy made Dow Finsterwald $10,000 richer today as he moved from the Speedway Festival Open golf tournament to the Flint Open.

Most of the big money winners shunned the $55,000 event this year, but Finsterwald, 33, boosted

The City Ten Pin Bowling League will hold its annual banquet tonight at 6:30 in the Travelers Hotel. Ralph Winters is president.

himself into sixth place among this year's players on the circuit with $26,543. He had been running ninth.

The Ohioan picked up his first tourney victory since the 1960 New Orleans Open by putting together rounds of 68, 68, 64 and 68 for a 268 total—16 under par.

Bob Nichols, Tony Lema, Julius Boros and Tommy Aaron finished with 270s, 14 under par. Finsterwald went 15 under by sinking a 17-foot putt on the 16th hole. Early leader Fred Hawkins, playing in the same final threesome, went 14 under with a birdie on No. 17.

A dramatic situation on the dog-leg par 5 18th hole quickly became an anticlimax. Hawkins hit his second shot into a creek and had to take a bogey 6. Finsterwald hit his second shot 75 feet from the pin and putted to less than a foot from the cup for an easy birdie.

Nichols, Lema, Boros and Aaron won $3,400 apiece. Juan Rodriguez of Puerto Rico, Bob Duden and Hawkins got $2,100 apiece for their 271s.

Pole Vaulter Eyes Distance Not How High

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—When Jeff Chase pole vaulted 28 feet, 8 inches at a track meet held recently at his alma mater, San Jose State, no one got particularly excited.

However, he may have started something.

Chase used the fiber glass pole, of course, in bettering the official world's record.

But he wasn't going for height. He was going for distance. Pole vaulters using the fiber glass or better haven't gone 28 feet up yet, and probably won't for another year or so.

The old record for distance was established at 28-2 Oct. 31, 1910 by Platt Adams at an indoor meet in New York City. The reason it stood for over one-half century was that the event went out of fashion soon afterwards.

Bud Winter, the San Jose track coach, discovered the mark in some musty record book and decided it would be easy to improve.

Rogers Registers Fourth Straight In Minor League

Rogers Drive-In won its fourth straight contest by downing Putters Bank & Trust, 6-4, and Pusa-ter's defeated M & A Motors 3-2 Monday in Minor League action.

Mike Lockhart was the winning pitcher for Rogers while Earl Gilbert and Jim Smith led the winners at the plate with two hits each. Webber had a triple for the losers.

Dave Kyle fanned nine batters and smacked a double for Pusa-ter's as he limited M & A Motors to four hits. Tom Wolfe was the hitting star with two doubles.

After Harold (Bill) Spute of Hamburg, N.Y., shot a two-under par 69 during a physical education class he was invited to join the Michigan State golf team this spring.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX coach Don Gutteridge (30) bends over Joe Cunningham after the first baseman tripped on the first base bag and fell heavily on his right shoulder. Cunningham suffered a broken collarbone which will put him out of action for about two months. The White Sox won the costly game against the Angels Monday night at Los Angeles. (UPI Telephoto)

Council Approves Plan

Refunding Of City Bonds To Cut Interest $54,338

Council took the first step Monday night in a complicated refunding of $1,240,000 in municipal bonds issued in 1956 and 1957 to finance the sewage system after a spokesman for a Cleveland investment house assured the members the procedure will save the city $54,338 in interest charges over the 25 years remaining in the life of the issue.

Council enacted a resolution declaring its intent to accept a proposal advanced by Thomas Summers, a representative of Fahey, Clark & Co., Cleveland investment house. The final step is contemplated at the next meeting June 17, Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper advised the councilmen.

The maneuver is practical now because the municipal and U. S. bond markets are at levels they have not attained for 20 years, Summers told Council.

The proposal calls for the city to issue $1,240,000 in so-called refunding bonds. Proceeds from the sale of the new issue would be invested in U. S. government bonds.

The sewage plant bonds cannot be called until Dec. 1, 1966. Meanwhile, the Cleveland firm's proposal contemplates that the invested proceeds of the new bond issue will be building up interest.

At the end of 1966, the proceeds from the investment in U. S. bonds will be used to retire the obligations issued in 1956 and 1957 for construction of the sewage system and treatment plant, Summers said.

The change-over will bring the city a saving of $2,500 annually in interest charges, he promised. Summers said similar refunding plans have been set up in about a dozen other Ohio municipalities.

The plan is possible because municipal bonds now are selling at a comparatively low rate, while the yield is higher than normal on U. S. bonds, he explained. The difference in the interest rates will make it possible for the city to accomplish the saving, he said. Summers and Cooper explained the proposal at length to Council in a caucus session prior to the public meeting.

Since revenue from sewage charges has not been sufficient to meet the city's debt obligations, about $16,000 has been set aside annually out of the general fund, Cooper said. The necessity for utilizing general fund money will end under the refunding plan, he said.

The mortgage revenue bonds issued to construct the system run through 1988. In "calling" the bonds, the city exercises its option to pay them off before the maturity date.

Under the new system, there also will be a change in the called replacement fund which the sewage department now is required to set aside annually out of revenue, Cooper said. The bond ordinance requires the department to put $39,000 a year in the replacement fund and it now stands at $100,000, Cooper said. The money can be used for replacement, repairs or extensions in the system, such as the contemplated Gardendale trunk line project, Cooper said.

Based on the current debt program, $200,000 would be required annually to retire bonds and for the replacement fund, but the sewage department's yield is only $172,000, Cooper said.

In the new procedure, the sewage department's contribution to the replacement fund will be $10,000 a year, but no new funds will be required so long as the total stands at $100,000, Cooper said. If the total ever falls below $100,000, the department will be required to contribute $10,000 a year until the fund has been rebuilt.

Cooper said legislation authorizing the new bond issue will be presented at the meeting June 17.

2 Testify They Never Saw Mistreatment Of Girl, 19

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Two defense witnesses have testified that they never saw evidence of mistreatment in the home of Mrs. Richard Carr, who is on trial charged with cruel treatment of her niece, Frances Jean Carr, 19. The defense opened its case Monday after Municipal Court judge James Ravella denied a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal. Defense attorneys made the plea after the prosecution called the last of 16 witnesses to the stand.

The defense witnesses, Corina Bizio and Lyman Doane, both of Warren, testified they were frequent visitors to the Carr home. They said they never knew of the girl being mistreated.

Another witness, Mrs. Betty Weaver, testified that she noticed Frances' hair in September 1962 was cut "hither and yon." She said that Mrs. Carr told her that Frances cut it herself.

Mrs. Donna Homes of McDonald, a sister of Mrs. Carr, testified that Frances stayed with her for two weeks last July, and during that time Frances refused to bathe, brush her teeth and was hard to manage.

Miss Carr was recalled to the stand to identify a metal cabinet taken from the Carr home by deputies. In her direct testimony last week she had said her father and her aunt had locked her up in "a metal cabinet."

She did not positively identify the cabinet in court, but said "it looked like it." She then entered the box to show how she said she was placed inside.

Frances has contended on the stand her aunt and father kept her confined to an unheated shed, often locked her in a saddlebox and inflicted other punishment from last November until she escaped in March. She also testified she was starved, scalded and beaten by them. Both have denied the charges. The father will be tried later. The girl's mother is dead.

Boys' Hearings Set

LISBON — Hearings for two 15-year-old boys who ran away from Kyes Memorial Home in East Palestine Thursday night and allegedly stole a car belonging to Mrs. Ruth Adams of East Palestine will be held Thursday at 9:30 a. m. before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin. The youths were apprehended in Chicago Friday night and were returned by plane Sunday by Chief Juvenile Officer Cornelius Csepke.

Council Approves Plan

Refunding Of City Bonds To Cut Interest $54,338

Council took the first step Monday night in a complicated refunding of $1,240,000 in municipal bonds issued in 1956 and 1957 to finance the sewage system after a spokesman for a Cleveland investment house assured the members the procedure will save the city $54,338 in interest charges over the 25 years remaining in the life of the issue.

Council enacted a resolution declaring its intent to accept a proposal advanced by Thomas Summers, a representative of Fahey, Clark & Co., Cleveland investment house. The final step is contemplated at the next meeting June 17, Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper advised the councilmen.

The maneuver is practical now because the municipal and U. S. bond markets are at levels they have not attained for 20 years, Summers told Council.

The proposal calls for the city to issue $1,240,000 in so-called refunding bonds. Proceeds from the sale of the new issue would be invested in U. S. government bonds.

The sewage plant bonds cannot be called until Dec. 1, 1966. Meanwhile, the Cleveland firm's proposal contemplates that the invested proceeds of the new bond issue will be building up interest.

At the end of 1966, the proceeds from the investment in U. S. bonds will be used to retire the obligations issued in 1956 and 1957 for construction of the sewage system and treatment plant, Summers said.

The change-over will bring the city a saving of $2,500 annually in interest charges, he promised. Summers said similar refunding plans have been set up in about a dozen other Ohio municipalities.

The plan is possible because municipal bonds now are selling at a comparatively low rate, while the yield is higher than normal on U. S. bonds, he explained. The difference in the interest rates will make it possible for the city to accomplish the saving, he said. Summers and Cooper explained the proposal at length to Council in a caucus session prior to the public meeting.

Since revenue from sewage charges has not been sufficient to meet the city's debt obligations, about $16,000 has been set aside annually out of the general fund, Cooper said. The necessity for utilizing general fund money will end under the refunding plan, he said.

The mortgage revenue bonds issued to construct the system run through 1988. In "calling" the bonds, the city exercises its option to pay them off before the maturity date.

Under the new system, there also will be a change in the so-called replacement fund which the sewage department now is required to set aside annually out of revenue, Cooper said. The bond ordinance requires the department to put $39,000 a year in the replacement fund and it now stands at $100,000, Cooper said.

The money can be used for replacement, repairs or extensions in the system, such as the contemplated Gardendale trunk line project, Cooper said.

Based on the current debt program, $200,000 would be required annually to retire bonds and for the replacement fund, but the sewage department's yield is only $172,000, Cooper said.

In the new procedure, the sewage department's contribution to the replacement fund will be $10,000 a year, but no new funds will be required so long as the total stands at $100,000, Cooper said. If the total ever falls below $100,000, the department will be required to contribute $10,000 a year until the fund has been rebuilt.

Cooper said legislation authorizing the new bond issue will be presented at the meeting June 17.

OFF THE RECORD

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1944, the first units of the American Fifth Army and British Eighth Army entered Rome, but most of the troops were held back until the following day. Rome was freed of its last Nazi invader just nine months after allied landings on Italy's mainland.

On this date:

In 1777, the first loan to the Continental Congress--of $181,500--was received from the Farmers-General Organization of France.

In 1893, the Anti-Saloon League of Ohio was formed; it was the predecessor of the national organization of the same name.

In 1918, United States and French forces drove the Germans back across the Marne.

In 1941, former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany died in exile.

Ten years ago: North Korean Communists rejected a new allied truce proposal at a secret meeting in Panmunjom.

In 1942, the Japanese opened their attack on Midland Island.

Five years ago: Thirty persons were killed and 350 injured in tornadoes in northwestern Wisconsin.

One year ago: the first U.S. attempt to set off a thermo-nuclear blast high above Johnston Island in the Pacific ended in failure.

Sight-seers driving over San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge are discouraged from traveling at a snail's pace by an optical illusion. At less than 35 miles an hour, the metal pales below the guardrail block the view. Proper speed gives motorists an uninterrupted panorama.

What is probably an all-time record for sustained marching was set by the infantry forces of Alexander the Great. After the Battle of Arbela, they traveled for 11 days at an average rate of 36½ miles a day.

Junior Editors Quiz on LOBSTERS

QUESTION: Does the lobster swim or crawl?

ANSWER. A lobster is a queer-looking animal, but each part of his body has a meaning in the life he lives on the ocean floor. Lobsters eat crabs or any small sea animals they can catch. Their enormous front claws allow them to seize these small animals. Notice that one claw (A) is heavier than the other (B). The big claw has rounded blunt teeth and is used to seize and crush the prey. The small claw, used to tear up the prey, has sharper teeth. You may notice that the big claw is on the left hand (A) in the small picture and is on the right in the larger two lobsters. This is not a mistake, for lobsters vary in this respect.

At night the lobster tiptoes around on his five pairs of legs looking for food; the long feelers help him find it. If discovered by an enemy such as an octopus, the lobster would swim hurriedly backward as at the top. He flips his tail underneath him to do this. During the day, the lobster usually hides in some crevice or in a burrow. Now you can see why the feelers are so long. The lobsters holds these outside the burrow and waves them around. If they touch something that seems edible, the lobster jumps out and grabs it.

FOR YOU TO DO: Check on a lobsters anatomy the next time you see one in a fish market window. If you live in the country, look carefully in a creek bottom and see if you can spot a crayfish. They are much like lobsters in miniature.

Susan Guillemette of Sanford, Maine, wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review, and you may win $10 or the grand prize of a set of Britannica Junior Encyclopedias.

OFF THE RECORD

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1944, the first units of the American Fifth Army and British Eighth Army entered Rome, but most of the troops were held back until the following day. Rome was freed of its last Nazi invader just nine months after allied landings on Italy's mainland.

On this date:

In 1777, the first loan to the Continental Congress—of $181,500—was received from the Farmers-General Organization of France.
In 1893, the Anti-Saloon League of Ohio was formed; it was the predecessor of the national organization of the same name.
In 1918, United States and French forces drove the Germans back across the Marne.
In 1941, former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany died in exile.
Ten years ago: North Korean Communists rejected a new allied treaty proposal at a secret meeting in Panmunjom.

In 1942, the Japanese opened their attack on Midland Island.
Five years ago: Thirty persons were killed and 350 injured in tornadoes in northwestern Wisconsin.

One year ago: the first U.S. attempt to set off a thermo-nuclear blast high above Johnston Island in the Pacific ended in failure.

Sight-seers driving over San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge are discouraged from traveling at a snail's pace by an optical illusion. At less than 35 miles an hour, the metal pales below the guardrail block the view. Proper speed gives motorists an uninterrupted panorama.

What is probably an all-time record for sustained marching was set by the infantry forces of Alexander the Great. After the Battle of Arbela, they traveled for 11 days at an average rate of 36 1/2 miles a day.

Junior Editors Quiz on LOBSTERS

QUESTION: Does the lobster swim or crawl?

ANSWER: A lobster is a queer-looking animal, but each part of his body has a meaning in the life he lives on the ocean floor. Lobsters eat crabs or any small sea animals they can catch. Their enormous front claws allow them to seize these small animals. Notice that one claw (A) is heavier than the other (B). The big claw has rounded blunt teeth and is used to seize and crush the prey. The small claw, used to tear up the prey, has sharper teeth. You may notice that the big claw is on the left hand (A) in the small picture and is on the right in the larger two lobsters. This is not a mistake, for lobsters vary in this respect.

At night the lobster tiptoes around on his five pairs of legs looking for food; the long feelers help him find it. If discovered by an enemy such as an octopus, the lobster would swim hurriedly backward as at the top. He flips his tail underneath him to do this. During the day, the lobster usually hides in some crevice or in a burrow. Now you can see why the feelers are so long. The lobsters holds these outside the burrow and waves them around. If they touch something that seems edible, the lobster jumps out and grabs it.

FOR YOU TO DO: Check on a lobsters anatomy the next time you see one in a fish market window. If you live in the country, look carefully in a creek bottom and see if you can spot a crayfish. They are much like lobsters in miniature.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I wish I could get my hands on that little snip who didn't want to invite her fiancé's friends to their wedding because they were truck drivers. I'm a graduate of Hunter College and I married a truck driver. We have three bright children, own a comfortable home, take a three-week vacation every year (twice to Europe since '56) and I have a beautiful nine - stripe beaver coat with a mink collar.

The girl who wrote that letter must be living in the dark ages. Today truck drivers make a handsome living. Many of our friends who are professional people and executives of large companies are struggling to get by, but not us.

I'm proud to be married to a "Knight of the Road." She should have it so good. — THE KNIGHT'S LADY.

Dear Lady: Many truck drivers' wives wrote to say it's a great life but you said it best. Thanks for your letter.

Back In Orbit

Dear Ann: I went steady with Eddie for a year. We decided to call it quits because of religious differences which could not be resolved. I'm 20, so please don't think this letter is from a giddy high school sophomore.

It took several months to get over my heartache but I did recover and I'm now dating a terrific guy who is a friend of Eddie's. When we first started to date I made him promise to keep it strictly platonic. I had had enough of love and didn't want to be hurt again.

He has kept his word, darn it, and this is my problem. I'm sick to death of this brother - sister kick. I've fallen hard and I'm sure he has, too, but he's afraid to make the first move and it's all my fault.

We've been dating for three months and if he gives me one more good night handshake I'll scream. — SELF-VICTIMIZED.

Dear Self-Victimized: Don't scream. You may frighten him away. Just tell him in plain English that your busted heart had healed and you are ready to give love another chance. If he gives you a handshake after THAT confession, he's no candidate.

No Nature Girl

Dear Ann: It's the time of the year when my husband begins to hear "the call of the wild."

We have two sons, 10 and 12. Ever since the boys have been old enough to walk we have spent three weeks every summer camping out — and I DO mean out. My husband picks the most God-forsaken, primitive spots he can find. Some of our camp sites have been so rocky and miserable even the Indians didn't want 'em.

Last year I told him I was through dragging along dishes, pots, pans, bedding and canned goods, washing clothes by hand and doing without plumbing. A person has to be crazy to leave the conveniences of home and work the way I did. He agreed it was the last time he'd ask me to do it.

Well, now he's talking tents again and I am doing a slow burn. I'm perfectly willing to rent a cabin but no more roughing it. He accuses me of being selfish and depriving the boys of real outdoor life. What do you think, Ann? — THE MULE. (HIS NAME FOR ME.)

Dear Mother: Tell nature boy you've had it with the Lewis and Clark bit and you're holding him to his promise of last year. The boys can get plenty of outdoor life and still sleep in a bed at night and take a bath in a tub.

If he insists on another tent vacation, tell him to drop post cards when he goes into town for sunburn lotion and mosquito netting—that you'll be waiting for him at home.

Confidentially

TO JUST CURIOUS: So am I. If someone is lifting my material I'd like to know about it. Please send me the columns which "sound so familiar." I would appreciate it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: How can I remove ball point ink from my plastic upholstery? These little kiddies just will use ball point pens! We are desperate; I've tried everything and cannot remove it.

MOTHER.

Dear Mother: It is my belief that ball point inks vary. Get to it as quickly as possible for best removal.

Sometimes cuticle remover will make the spot disappear. I use this by dipping an old terry cloth wash rag in some cuticle remover and rubbing in the spot.

Other times I know rubbing alcohol - such as is found in your bathroom - will do the same job. However, we have had so many complaints that neither of these will work on certain kinds of fabrics that we have written a plastic manufacturer and here is his answer:

"Vinyl upholstery is made to withstand scuffing, cracking, peeling and hard use. It will come up fresh and sparkling after a mild soap-and-water cleaning followed by a clear water rinse. However certain stains, if allowed to remain, become set and make removal more difficult.

"It is important to remove these stains immediately.

"For ordinary soiling: Day-to-day soiling can be removed with a mild soap and warm water. Following this, the upholstery should be thoroughly rinsed with clear water and then wiped dry.

"If Vinyl should get ball point ink on it it should be removed immediately. Place a thin cotton pad over the stained portion and pour sufficient household bleach to wet the pad. Lift the pad at one minute intervals and note if the stain has been removed. Do not prolong this contact.

"When the stain has been satisfactorily bleached, wash the area with a 3 per cent solution of hydrogen peroxide, followed by a mild soap and water rinse.

FELIX J. KORSYN.

DEAR HELOISE: I remove hair oil and grease from wall paper by applying talcum powder generously . . . then rubbing it in gently. Leave this on the spot three or four days. It may be removed with your vacuum cleaner attachment or soft rags. It may take more than one application.

MRS. WARD DAVIS.

LETTER OF TRUTH

Dear Heloise: Instead of kicking my kids out of the kitchen I put them in a chair to watch me while I work.

MOTHER OF MANY.

DEAR HELOISE: When my girls' leotards wear out at the knees . . . I cut the legs off and make "fancy pants" by putting lace or ruffles on the edge.

The rest is used to make doll clothes.

MARIE L.

DEAR HELOISE: I am a beginner at knitting. My finger got so sore that it finally dawned on me to wrap a piece of adhesive tape across the top of my finger and this eliminated my problem.

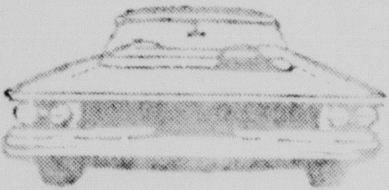

MARY S.

DEAR HELOISE: When I want to toast a bunch of marshmallows in a hurry I just set a pan of them on a sheet of foil in a pie tin in a very hot oven. They are done to perfection in less time and are delicious.
